

State May Ask for Road Bids in June

Work Will Come Under $12 Million Wisconsin Program Covered by the New Federal Highway Legislation

Madison — The state highway department expects to advertise in June for bids on some of the projects in a $12 million Wisconsin program covered by a new federal highway law.

President Eisenhower Wednesday signed into law a bill which allocates $400 million to be given to the states on the basis of $2 for each $1 of funds supplied by the states.

The 2-for-1 plan is included in the $1,800,000 highway bill signed by the president. Early advertising is prompted by the federal requirement that the states' entire programs must be under contract by Dec. 1 to qualify for 2-for-1 financing. In addition, construction must be completed during the 12 months starting Dec. 1.

Likely Projects
Harold Plummer, chairman of the state highway commission, said Wednesday that the projects to be financed under the 2-for-1 plan will be picked from those already planned for construction in 1959.

He said projects mostly likely to be selected are those which would require almost no additional planning and would not involve extensive negotiations for buying rights-of-way. He said the $12 million program will include primary, secondary and urban roads.

Plummer said the district engineers already have studied their 1959 projects and soon will be able to recommend those which can be advanced a few months to come under the new federal-state financing program.

The commission chairman said the new law provides for federal advance grants to states to help them supply the $1 in state funds needed to match the $2 in U. S. funds. However Plummer said he did not think Wisconsin would have to use this provision of the law.

Part of Law
Plummer said another part of the new law restores an expected 50 per cent cut in the federal allocations for construction work on the interstate system during 1960. Under this separate program, the

Wiley Requests End to Fight Over Wages

Calls on Labor and Management to Put Off Its 'Slugging'

Milwaukee — Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) has called on labor and management to end what he called toe-to-toe slugging matches over wage and prices.

The senator added, "The time has also passed when industry can seek excessive profits and labor can make unrealistic demands for wages and fringe benefits—each contributing to higher prices."

Negotiations must be carried on with the needs of the general economy in mind, Wiley said in an address prepared for delivery today over a Madison radio station.

The consumers inability to pay increasingly high prices is the major contributor to the present economic recession, Wiley said.

"Unless consumers can afford to buy the product," he added, "labor does no work and the wheels of industry do not turn."

Gaylord Nelson, Democratic candidate for governor, asserted Wednesday night that "the secret caucus has replaced the legislative branch of the state government" because of the Republican majority in the Legislature.

Nelson told a Democratic meeting at Cornell that the GOP majority was "so overwhelming that all important decisions are made in secret party caucuses, and the act of the Legislature is a mere formality."

Nelson said that if elected one of his first jobs will be "to tear down the walls of secrecy around state government."

Jury Awards $30,000 To New York Lawyer

New York — A jury yesterday awarded $30,000 to a Wall street lawyer for services connected with the divorce of Winthrop Rockefeller and Barbara "Bobo" Sears Rockefeller. The attorney had sought $100,000.

A state supreme court jury deliberated three hours before ordering payment to Leo C. Fennelly. After the verdict, Fennelly asked for a new trial on the ground that the amount awarded was not enough. Justice Aron Steuer turned him down.

Fennelly, one of Mrs. Rockefeller's former attorneys, said that when she first consulted him — in November, 1955 — Rockefeller had offered a $9,240,000 settlement for her and her son, Paul. But, the attorney added, "She wanted more."

After extensive legal wrangling, Mrs. Rockefeller and her son received about $6 million.

Economic Situation

World Bank Head Sees No Cause for Concern

United Nations, N.Y. — "I am not pessimistic about the current economic situation," the head of the world bank said today. "I am not pessimistic about the current economic situation."

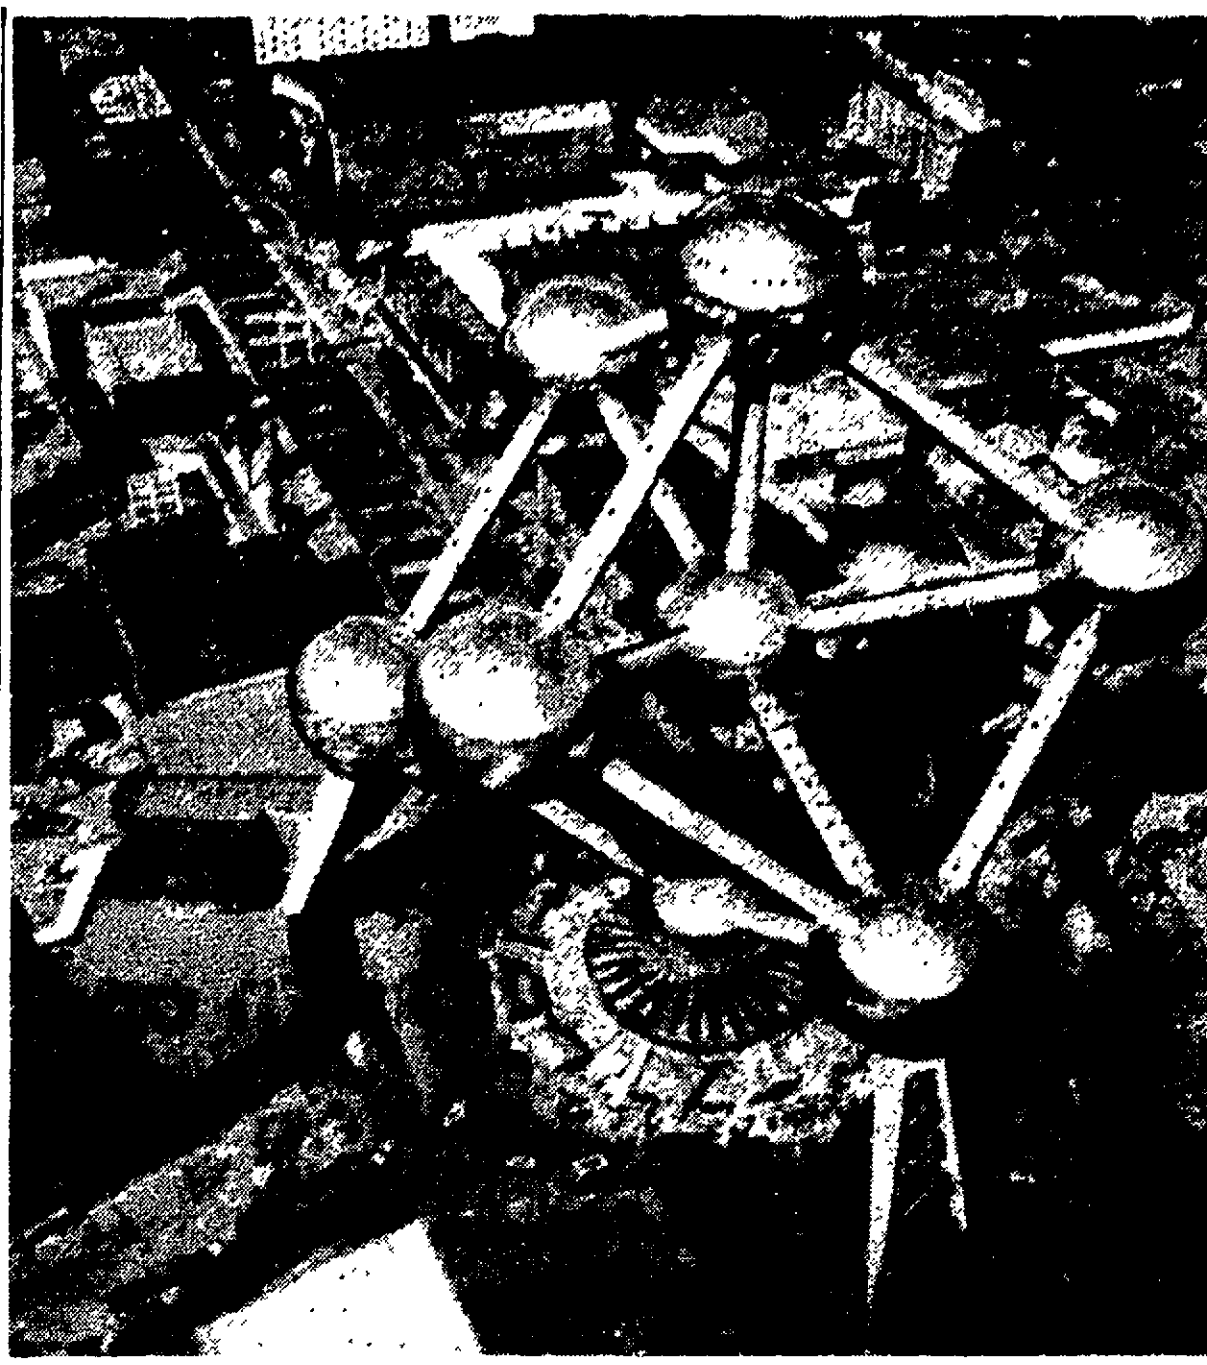

President Eugene R. Black made the statement in a report that this momentum were lost to the U.N. economic and social council.

The 59-year-old banker from Atlanta, Ga., conceded that their economic growth depends on the slowing down of economic pends on their own efforts more activity in North America is better than at any time in the past.

He said the times call for in-may forebode a slowing down of intelligent planning, hard work investment and economic and thrift.

The bank's program of loans "Whatever the prospects for productive purposes, and the short run, I think it is clear encouragement of investment that in the longer run they are hit a peak this year, Black said good," he added. "There is still in his annual report.

In the fiscal year to end June 30, the bank probably will have lent well over $650 million for a new record.

Overcoat Weather Fails to Cut Down Crowd at Opening of World's Fair

Hundreds Pour Into American, Russian Pavilions; Girls, Sputnik Chief Lure

Brussels, Belgium — King Baudouin opened the postwar world's biggest international exposition today and declared: "The aim of this world's fair is to create an atmosphere of understanding and peace."

It was a chill, gray day and a whistling wind made it overcoat weather, but failed to hold down the crowds. Hundreds poured into the American and Russian pavilions. During the first hours, the crowds appeared to be slightly larger at the beautiful circular American show. But the throngs at the Russian hall were not much smaller.

Chief Attraction
Chief attraction of the Soviets appeared to be models of their challenging sputniks. The main interest at the U.S. exhibition was a bevy of beautiful girls — some in brief bathing suits. Nobody whistled at the sputniks.

The Russians put out a large guest book and invited visitors to make comments. "This is a large, lovely pavilion," wrote one, "keep up the good work."

Both were written in French. The Americans had no guest book. Both countries opened with traditional ribbon-cutting ceremonies.

plenty of speech making. Visitors shivered in the cold weather during the oratory. The Russian exhibit appeared to be completely ready. The American show was not.

First Since 1939
It is the first world's fair since New York's in 1939.

"With immense hope we now open the Brussels world's fair of 1958," the 27-year-old monarch told a cheering audience. "Science is not sufficient to great civilizations. This requires a parallel development of our moral conceptions and our will to achieve them through constructive effort."

The king explained that this was the great idea which inspired the Belgian people to invite the world to fraternize at the world's fair.

Forty-one countries will exhibit their achievements in the arts and sciences for the next four months, drawing up what a fair commissioner Baron Moens De Fernig described as a balance sheet for a more humane world.

Transit Strike Averted During Milwaukee Talks

Milwaukee — Local bus service continued in usual style today after a strike set to start at 4 this morning was averted in a bargaining session that lasted until after midnight.

Federal Mediators Joseph L. Conley and John H. Lacy announced that officials of the Transport company and 2,000 drivers and maintenance men had reached a tentative agreement. The employees are members of Division 998 of the Amalgamated Association of Street Car, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees.

Charles Brehm, union president, said a company proposal presented shortly after 8 o'clock Wednesday will be presented to members at a meeting Saturday. Members of the union's bargaining committee said they would recommend the offer be accepted.

Mickey Cohen Appeals Sentence for Battery

Los Angeles — A judge gave Mickey Cohen this alternative for slugging a waiter last January: A $500 fine or 50 days in jail. The former gambler promptly appealed yesterday's sentence.

The pudgy gambler-turned-florist was convicted of battery in the slugging of Arthur Black, a waiter in a Hollywood bar.

Production Rate Off But Figures Indicate Decline Is Slowing

Commerce Department Estimate of Output Reveals Fall of $15 Billion

Washington — Government officials estimated today the nation's production rate has fallen about $15 billion a year, or 3 per cent, below the boom level of six months ago but the decline is slowing.

The commerce department's estimate of total national output, soon to be released, reportedly will show that the $71 billion skid in the last quarter of 1957 was equaled by the further drop in first-quarter 1958.

The report indicates the recession already is deeper than that of 1933-4 and in several respects is matching the sharper slump of 1949-50.

On the other hand, there are signs of a coming pick-up in home building. Defense spending should rise more rapidly than it did in the past three months. Some important industries, including steel, are finally getting their excess inventories worked off.

Post-Crescent Survey
And family income remains not far below the peak levels of last summer. The economists are hoping that the consumer, who has been saving at a high rate, may soon decide he is sufficiently well-heeled to resume spending with confidence.

(An Appleton Post-Crescent survey of 181 industrial and business employers in the Fox Cities showed the recession has not affected this area as much as elsewhere, that the work force in the reporting companies is almost the same as a year ago, off 1.9 per cent and that incomes generally are the same or increased.)

The trends last month still were downward but the fall was less rapid. This has stiffened the resistance of key administration advisers to quick anti-recession remedies — a general tax cut or massive public works.

Savings in Fox Cities Banks Up Nearly $5 Million in Year

Survey Shows People Have Money
To Buy, but are Not Spending It

BY RICHARD GLAMAN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Sellers of automobiles and other durable goods say sales are down. If they are, it's not because people don't have the money.

A survey of the 11 Fox Cities banks shows area residents have over $48 million tucked away in savings deposits. This is nearly $5 million more than at the same time a year ago.

Economists say talk of recession makes people reluctant to spend savings as they normally would and causes them to put away a little more from each pay check for the proverbial "rainy day."

Chain Reaction

This results in a sort of chain reaction. The recession talk causes people to save more. And the more people stash away in savings accounts instead of buying goods, the more it causes layoffs in industry and deepens the recession.

As Franklin D. Roosevelt put it: "The only thing to fear is fear itself."

The "You Auto Buy Now" promotion of Fox Cities car dealers is designed to fight the recession. It has spurred consumer buying in other areas as well as automobiles, and has been praised by President Eisenhower as a fine example of American enterprise.

9 Per Cent Increase

Savings in the Fox Cities banks on April 1 totaled nearly $48½ million. At the same time a year ago the total was a little more than $43½ million. This is more than a 9 per cent jump.

Most of the banks reported the increase in savings has come gradually over the last year. They noted no significant trend in the last few months, which saw normal withdrawals associated with payment of state and federal income taxes and local property taxes.

The four banks in Neenah-Menasha had the largest increases. Combined, they reported $19,483,100 in savings accounts this April. Last year the figure was $16,800,400 — and increase of $2,682,700.

Appleton Banks

Savings in Appleton's three banks jumped from $22,020,679 last April to $23,730,082 this month. That's a hike of $1,709,403.

Rates of increase in the two Kaukauna banks and in Kimberly and Little Chute were about the same.

Bank officials indicate they feel talk of recession is causing many regular savers to increase the amount they put away each week. "In times like these, the fellow who usually salts away $10 a week is now putting $20 away," one banker said.

Project Figures

Considering that the Fox Cities area, with a population of something like 125,000, has increased savings by close to $5 million in a year, the same rate of increase in the state would boost savings by about $150 million.

And, if the people of the state spent only half of this—$75 million — it would have kept many of the wheels of industry turning. This would have kept the pay envelopes coming to the workers, who in turn would have spent more and kept the spiral going to meet, increasing productivity of modern industry.

Despite the fact that the Fox Cities have scarcely felt the effects of the recession, the mood of the rest of the nation has had its impact and has made many people hold off purchases they normally would make.

Some believe promotions of the "Auto Buy" will get people over this brand of negative thinking and put an end to the recession.

Mayor Clarence A. Mitchell This morning signed his first proclamation since taking office when he designated April 18 to 27 as "You Auto Buy Now" week. Watching the signing are Dan Cloud, right, chairman of the Fox Cities Auto Buy committee, and Sam Malofsky, committee member. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Put Off Discussion of Changing Street Policy

What to Do About Utility Cuts Will Take Long Discussion

Ald. Mrs. Dorothy Stillings' request to change the city's requirement for resurfacing of streets by utilities has been deemed too controversial to settle in one meeting by the street and sanitation committee.

Mrs. Stillings asked that the utilities resurface an area street-wide when they repair streets in which they make openings. The move, she said, would save streets from deterioration.

Committeemen said, before deciding to hold the matter for the new committee, that her proposal seemed a bit stringent.

Other committee actions, all approved by the city council Wednesday night:

Wenzel Brothers received permission to tunnel under E. College avenue in connecting the new Lawrence college music-drama center to existing water facilities.

Gas Mains

Gas main installation on W. McArthur street from N. Gillett street to N. Outagamie street, on N. Gillett from W. Taylor street south to No. 1807 were approved and E. McArthur street from N. Morrison street east 380 feet.

Plans and specifications for cutting down the vision obstruction for motorists at S. Lawe street and E. South River street with a new pedestrian stairway construction were ordered.

A host of grades for streets, to be adopted in ordinance form later by the council, were set.

A 3-yard Wayne Manufacturing company, Chicago, motorized street sweeper was recommended for purchase for $9,629 minus a 2 per cent discount. The committee had five bids for a sweeper under consideration since February and inspected all models.

A 10-foot-wide pedestrian lane will be kept by the city and the rest of the right-of-way for N. Racine street, immediately north of E. Lindbergh street, will be vacated in favor of Paul Noffke, owner of adjacent property. The pedestrian lane also will serve for a storm sewer.

Vacate Small Section

All of the right-of-way for N. Rankin street, immediately north of E. Lindbergh, will be vacated in favor of Noffke.

Ald. Charles Captain was instructed to seek out other property owners and discover their wishes before the committee will take action on a request of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Kies, 218 S. Outagamie street. The Kies want the city to vacate a strip 7 feet, 5 inches wide that runs east and west off S. Outagamie street in mid-block between W. Eighth street and W. Lawrence street. It is all the land the city owns there for an alley.

It was agreed the city would furnish an amber warning light for boaters under the S. Oneida street swing bridge during navigation season. It will serve to tell boaters their horns have been heard.

Weed Cutting by City To Cost Property Owners More in '58

The city council Wednesday night voted to increase special assessment charges for weed cutting to $5 a lot or $5 an hour, whichever is greater.

The move, recommended by the street and sanitation committee, was taken to cut down the amount of weed work which Weed Commissioner John E. O'Connor's 5-man crew must do each summer.

Cost of weed cutting last year was $7,300, much of it stemming from work on city-owned boulevards. Assessments produced $1,800, it was said.

O'Connor said he would need another mower to do a good job. Committeemen were surprised to hear money for the mower, placed in this year's budget request by them, had been deleted last fall by the budget committee.

O'Connor's salary was set at $285 a month for the 6-month season.

Reds Try to Get Foothold In Morocco

BY STEPHEN HUGHES

Rabat, Morocco — The communist party, outlawed in Morocco first by the French and later by the independent government, is chipping away at the country's many problems.

The Soviet Union, communist China and the European satellites also are trying to increase their influence in the former French protectorate.

King Mohammed V is still so popular that the communists have not dared to attack him. Their policy outwardly is almost the same as that of the nationalist Istiqlal party, which supports the king but is more opposed to the French and favorable to President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

The main policy exception is that the communists demand the withdrawal of U.S. as well as French and Spanish troops from Morocco.

Fraise For China There is no evidence of active subversion, although French communists posing as liberals and Moroccan fellow travelers have infiltrated labor unions, student movements and other organizations.

Mohamed Floose, a student, recently returned from red China and wrote a series of articles a musical program of vocal and instrumental music was presented by Mrs. Kathryn Pasch and Leon Flanagan of the music department of the high school.

In the Istiqlal press praising the communist regime there. He said communism freed China of bugs and beggars and suggested that would be a good thing for Morocco, too.

Communist commercial penetration is evident at the site of the Casablanca international fair, scheduled to open April 25. Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, communist China and East Germany have large exhibits of products to be sold at very attractive prices.

A Moroccan delegation is on its way to Moscow for trade talks, but authorities insist that the trip is only a natural response to a visit here last year by a Soviet delegation.

The greatest bulwark against communist internal penetration apparently is the king and the powerful party system led by the Istiqlal.

The dangers arise principally from economic difficulties and the possibility that Morocco, disappointed by the west at a time when it needs help, might drift into neutralism and then into alliance with the communist world.

21 Seniors Inducted Into Honor Society

Twenty-one Appleton High school seniors were inducted into the Appleton chapter of the National Honor Society in a ceremony Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium. Seniors were chosen for their high scholastic achievement, leadership qualities, character and service.

Inducted into membership were Thomas Benton, Allan Cunningham, Judy Defferding, Carolyn Ewald, Gretchen Gericke, Judith Goehler, Howard Hamann, Kenneth Holehouse, John Kellogg, Karen Kirkpatrick, Ronald Kuhr, Robert Landis, Marcia Manier, Joan McBain, David McIntyre, Connie Menning, Lynn Meyer, Mary Quella, Helen Rugland, Paula Wochos and Luann Zimmerman.

Election was by a composite vote of the faculty members and the 100 students of the senior class who were eligible to membership because of their scholastic rank in the class. Nominations were made by the faculty and students. The final selection was made by a faculty vote.

Rugland Speaks

Walter L. Rugland, president of the Aid Association for Lutherans, whose daughter was one of those initiated, gave the address in which he pointed out those who were craftsmen in their work were always recognized. He defined a craftsman as one who is set apart by the way in which he carries out a job, one who works as carefully as he can and is aware of detail, yet never loses the vision of what he is trying to accomplish. All people, Rugland explained, need to be craftsmen. One of the marks of a craftsman is the creativeness with which he approaches a job. Another is pride in one's work. Self-advancement, he said, was powered by a person's own initiative and prompted by satisfaction in work well done.

Rugland pointed out the selection of the 21 AHS seniors for the top-notch craftsmen in the senior class. These students, he said, had demonstrated their abilities, characteristics and activities in such a way that they were recognized as honor students.

The meaning of honors was explained to the audience of parents and students by H. H. Helble, principal, who said there was a dual meaning in honors: rewards for past achievement and expectation of future achievement. Those who received honors have a further responsibility, he stated. He pointed out that the world has always recognized worthy achievement and has bestowed honors upon people.

Several efforts by people achieve honors by themselves and their own efforts and with the help of others.

City Police Home Pipefitting Work, Contractors Ask

The Central Valley Plumbing and Heating Contractors association wants pipefitting work in homes policed by a city licensing code.

In a letter introduced at Wednesday night's council meeting, 14 Fox Cities pipefitting companies in the association made the request.

The association also wants three pipefitters named to the city's heating board instead of the present lone representative.

"We commend the council," says the letter "on establishment of a residential heating code, covering warm air installation and conversion burners—oil, gas and stokers."

"We, as members of the pipefitting industry, are interested in the home owners protection on the installation of hot air and steam heating systems as well," the letter adds. "We understand such a code is being prepared."

Pipefitting requirements, the letter says, are quite different from warm air heating requirements when residential work is considered.

To Place A Want-Ad
Dial 3-4411

ers, he said. The chief progress, Helble pointed out, was made by individuals who had inner self-respect and determination. These people have an intense desire to do well, even to competing against themselves, but they need the help of others to achieve their purposes, he said.

The explanation of the meaning of the symbols was explained by Kenneth Edge, one of the committee. The key-stone, he said, symbolizes the structure of life held firmly by the four cardinal principles of the society: scholarship, leadership, character and service. The flaming torch is the emblem of the purpose of education, to bear forward the searching light of truth and to lead that others might follow.

W. A. Witte, assistant principal and a member of the National Honor society committee, presided at the induction. After the symbols were explained, new members of the society repeated the pledge of the society as it was read by Herbert Simon, a committee member. Helble presented each with the society pin and certificate. At the conclusion of the program, Lester Schulz led the group in singing of the Alma Mater.

After the induction ceremony a tea was held in the Early American room for new members, their parents, and the faculty. Those who poured were Miss Laura Livermore and Mrs. Janet Gibbons, both of whom will be leaving the faculty this year.

Members of the National Honor society committee were in charge of the tea and handled details of the voting and the induction ceremony. Committee members were Miss Ruth Parkinson, chairman, Miss Annabelle Wolf, dean of girls, Charles W. Cook, dean of boys, Miss LaVerne Kniesbusch, Thomas Farrell, Edge, Simon and Witte.

Waupaca Board Studies Plans for New Hospital

Construction Cost Of County Facility Set at $1,280,000

Waupaca — Preliminary plans for a new $1,280,000 Waupaca County hospital were presented to the board of supervisors Wednesday morning by Architect George Narovec of Appleton.

Due to state requests for improvements at the hospital and the high costs of repairs and changes, the board is looking into the possibility of a new structure or a completely remodeled old hospital.

Remodeling of the old building and addition of new wings could be done for an estimated cost of $988,000, said Narovec.

57-Year-Old Building
Located on route 1, Weyauwega, the 57-year-old hospital building now houses approximately 180 patients. It is constructed of brick walls, rubble stone foundations, wood floor over wood joists and wood timber trusses carrying a shingle roof.

Although precautions have been made to reduce fire hazards, all are the minimum to comply with the state code, said Narovec.

Although still in the talking stages, members took an unofficial vote which favored building a new structure instead of remodeling the present building.

When action is taken on the project, a referendum will most likely be held.

Pro Sports Fail to Get Fiat Anti-Trust Law Exemption

Washington — The house judiciary committee today approved legislation to exempt from anti-trust laws such practices by professional sports teams as are "reasonably necessary" to keep them competitive.

The committee passed out the bill to the full house for later action.

Council's New Business

2 Aldermen Want Parking Banned On One Side of N. Lawe Street

A resolution calling for a parking ban on the west side of N. Lawe street between E. College avenue and E. Wisconsin avenue was presented to the city council Wednesday night.

Aldermen Roy Pointer and Donald Mueller said the ban is needed because the exceptional, large amount of traffic on the street creates serious traffic hazards.

Related to the request is another submitted by the same two aldermen. In it, they ask for a study of the E. Wisconsin and N. Lawe intersection to see whether N. Lawe ought not be widened four feet on both sides between E. Summer street and E. Wisconsin.

Other Requests
Other requests to the council, all of which were referred to committees for study:

The committee of the whole, an informal discussion group composed of all aldermen, asked for additional compensation for chairmen of the four standing committees. The request was forwarded to the city attorney and the budget committee next fall.

Ald. Al. H. Stoebauer is seeking a change in the type of stop-go lights used at W. College avenue-Memorial drive-N. Richmond street intersection. Pedestrians can't tell when cars are likely to cross their walking routes, he said.

Alderman Kenneth Priebe and Harold Hannemann asked to meet with the water conditioning units which use water.

Ald. Mrs. Dorothy Stillings called for the park board to accept the low informal bid of J. O. Johnson to clean out the Lutz park lagoon. She also asked that the board build a basketball court in Pierce park.

Fifty File Protest
Fifty property owners filed protests against the opening of E. Lindbergh street west from N. Meade street this year.

The letter from Sen. William Proxmire, asking a list of city projects which could be undertaken immediately, was referred to the street and sanitation committee and the board of public works.

Ald. Charles Captain asked that the city permit St. Matthew school to block part of W. Lawrence street at the school to provide more play area for students. The school would block the street from 9:45 to 10:30 in the morning, from noon to 1 o'clock in the afternoon and 2 o'clock to 2:45 in the afternoon, he said.

Ald. Ervin J. Bogan wants something done with the property at the southwest corner of W. Wisconsin avenue and N. Douglas street which fills with water after rain and is, he said, a hazard to children.

Mrs. Agatha Pegel, 1830 E. Glendale avenue, filed a claim for $2,000 damages, resulting, she said, from injuring her leg on a parking meter stub on Franklin street.

Stoebauer also asked for repair of the street surface on N. Summit street between W. Harris street and W. Franklin street where a storm sewer was installed. He wants the work done at city expense.

A third Stoebauer resolution calls for placement by the city of 1 1/2 to 2 inches of top soil on that part of the Packard street dump which has been filled.

Mueller also is seeking a 1 1/2-inch asphalt mat in place of previously ordered turnover and double sealcoat on E. Lindbergh street from N. Drew street to N. Union street and on N. Union from E. Byrd street to E. Pershing street.

Street Work
Another Mueller resolution asks for patch and double sealcoat work on E. Grant street from N. Drew to N. Meade street and on E. Parkway boulevard from N. Drew to N. Lawe.

A third Mrs. Stillings resolution seeks curb, gutter, grading, graveling and 1 1/2-inch asphalt mat for S. Connel street from Reid drive to W. Prospect avenue and a 1 1/2-inch asphalt mat instead of previously ordered turnover and double sealcoat on Carver lane from W. Prospect to Reid drive.

Hannemann also wants a 1 1/2-inch asphalt mat for Cherry court, with Director of Public Works Edwin J. Duszynski to decide whether recent storm sewer work will affect the project.

Ald. Robert Stumpf asked for curb, gutter, grading, graveling and a 1 1/2-inch asphalt mat on S. Greenville street from E. Calumet street to E. Harding avenue. He wants the street width set at 37 feet.

Cancel Project
Stumpf also seeks curb, gutter, grading and a 1 1/2-inch asphalt mat for E. Harding street from S. Carpenter street west to the end of the street.

Ald. William F. Ertl requested curb, gutter and a 1 1/2-inch asphalt mat for W. Roberts street from N. Locust street west to the end of the street, for N. Bennett street from W. Parkway to W. Glendale and for N. Elmer street from W. Taylor street to the end of the street.

Ertl asked that street improvements ordered earlier for W. Taylor from N. Bennett to N. Summit be canceled. He gave no reason.

Ertl also wants sewer and water for W. Brewster street from N. Douglas street to N. Nicholas street and grading and graveling of N. Summit from W. Grant to W. Glendale. He called for sidewalk on the east side of N. Bennett from W. Wisconsin to W. Grant where there is none now.

Seeks Barricades
Ald. Harvey Priebe, Sr., wants the city to give the property owner at 724 N. State street authorization to raise the level of his driveway.

Ald. Douglas Ogilvie requested barricades for the Bellaire park entrances at N. Rankin street and E. North street.

Ald. Allan Sonkowsky asked for sidewalk construction on the west side of N. Helen street from E. Randall street to E. Pauline street. A petition signed by five people accompanied the request.

Stumpf wants sidewalk built on the north side of E. Murray avenue from S. Carpenter to the end of the street and at 513 E. Calumet and 313 and 231 E. Coolidge avenue.

Ald. Gerald Wagner wants the city to replace the sidewalk at the northwest corner of W. Parkway and N. Alvin street and to add about 90 feet of walk on W. Parkway west of N. Alvin.

Street Lights
Stumpf, Pointer and Sonkowsky asked for street lights at the end of E. Murray, E. Moorpark avenue in mid-block between N. Racine street and N. McDonald street and at E. Melrose avenue and N. Alexander street.

The community council invited the city council to attend its annual meeting at 8 o'clock Monday night, April 28, at Jefferson school. Dr. Russell W. Nash, associate professor of sociology at Coe college, will talk on "What Happens to a City That Grows."

Wettengel's Bar, 535 W. College, asked for a pool table license.

Requesting bartender's licenses were Ed Becker, 1200 S. Cneida street; Otto C. Glander, 1053 E. Woodland avenue; Peter Lanser, 711 W. Winnebago street; and Ben M. Smith, Hotel Appleton.

The city must pass on the plat, he says, because the plat lies partly within the 3-mile jurisdiction the law gives cities over plats.

The other is the Woodland Manor plat, a 26-lot plat north of E. Woodland avenue and east of N. Meade street. It is owned by Leonard Wiese, Gerald E. Quimby and Arthur P. Hietpas.

The layout shows two courts. Proponents argue it is essential to balance team strength and induce club owners to invest in the promising players.

The vote reportedly was divided. Inclusion of the "reasonably necessary" provision had brought earlier protests from some sports figures and, in congress, chiefly from Rep. Keating of New York, the committee's senior Republican.

Keating and the sports spokesmen favored a flat exemption of such practices as the contract reserve clause in baseball, football, basketball and hockey.

The clause ties a player to the club which first signs him. The layout shows two courts. Proponents argue it is essential to balance team strength and induce club owners to invest in the promising players.

Another Road Into Jones Park Rejected; Terrain Too Steep

Property owners who have petitioned for improvement of Jones park have rejected a suggestion that a road be cut into the park from the southwest corner, Park Board Sec. Arthur Jones said today.

It was thought, he said, that an additional road into the park would make access easier, but the grade was found to be too steep and would have required taking some residential driveway land.

The board instead, he said, will seek money next fall from the city council to build steps into the park somewhere in the southwest corner.

Policy Changed on Board, Institution Trustee Relationship

The Outagamie county board Wednesday decided to give county institutions' boards of trustees the right to call in any county board committee which may be able to help solve their problems.

Previously the board's public property committee members attended trustee meetings, but were not able to answer questions falling under jurisdiction of other committees, board Chairman Alvin Fucier said.

The trustees will be furnished a list of committees, indicating what areas of responsibility the committees handle, and the trustees can call the chairman of any committee to have a member attend the trustees' meeting.

Man Wouldn't Pay His Taxes, Heirs Give County $4,277

The heirs of a man who said he seceded from the town of Bovina, the county of Outagamie and the United States, and refused to pay his taxes, have agreed to pay the county $4,277.61 in back taxes.

Henry Smith, who was found dead in his farm home March 31, told the county he didn't have to pay taxes and added that he'd formed his own country.

The county took a tax deed to the property in 1952. Taxes for six years were estimated. The town of Bovina's share since 1942 is $966.66 and $3,310.95 is the county share.

County Corporation Counsel Raymond Dohr had advertised that a tax sale of the property would be held April 23. Now he has to run a notice of no sale, since George Smith, administrator of the estate, and other heirs decided they would keep the property. The county will issue a quit claim deed upon payment of the back taxes. The taxes date since 1942 and

Youth Denies Driving Car In Crash Race

A 17-year-old driver today in municipal court denied that he was racing with another car when it collided with a third.

David C. Kobs, 621 E. Grant street, posted $78.20 bond for trial May 14 on a charge of racing. He was arrested after witnesses gave police descriptions of the car racing with one driven by David L. Schroeder, Schroeder's car skidded more than 100 feet, hit a convertible at N. Meade and E. Frances streets and rolled over. No one was injured in the crash. Schroeder was fined $75 for driving too fast. A charge of driving without a driver's license was dismissed against Mrs. Donna Gustert, 28, route 1, Oneida.

Informed of Jury's opinion, Malmstrom, long an opponent of censorship, said he would study the situation to see if another approach could be taken. Banning of "Baby Doll," a motion picture, by the city's late Chief of Police Herbert W. Kapp and Jury a year ago, focused attention on the law.

Malmstrom, appearing before the League of Women Voters candidates meeting in March, said he was against censorship, a driver's license was dismissed against Mrs. Donna Gustert, 28, route 1, Oneida.

Council Approves 3 Zone Changes

Three changes in zoning were approved by the city council Wednesday and one was turned down, all after public hearings on city planning commission recommendations.

The five lots on the east side of N. Richmond street north of W. Marquette street were rezoned from 1-family to multiple family district.

Gerald, L. Winters, a nearby property owner, objected by letter, saying that a multiple family home had been moved into the area and is not being kept up.

The three lots on the east side of Maplecrest court immediately south of W. Foster street were rezoned from 1-family to 2-family district.

Alderman Endorses

Ald. Harold Hannemann endorsed the move in a floor speech saying the lots were separated from the rest of the residential property in the area.

Part of the Wisconsin Michigan Power company property off S. Weimer court north of the Chicago and North Western Railway company tracks was rezoned from 1-family to commercial and light manufacturing district. The power company will erect a power station on the site.

Rezoning of 206 S. Memorial drive from multiple family to local business district was denied, without comment or objection.

Board of Health Nominates New Meat Inspector

Dr. D. L. Jones Recommended to Replace Dr. Madson

The Appleton board of health this morning nominated Dr. D. L. Jones, 703 W. Verbrick street, for the post of meat inspector to replace Dr. William Madson.

Jones was one of four applicants, as was Dr. Madson. Jones is a graduate of Iowa State college in veterinary medicine, a former federal meat inspector and a former chief inspector for the Milwaukee health department. The city council will vote on the nomination May 7.

In replacing Madson, the board felt a younger man would be able to spend more time at the job Madson is nearly 75 and has been ill.

Part-time Job

The post pays a starting salary of $3,366 and moves up to $3,606 in three steps. It is a part-time job which requires about four hours a day, according to Deputy Health Officer, Claude Greisch. The meat inspector also gets $55 a month car allowance.

Dr. Carl Neidhold, chairman of the board, said he had received no applications for the post of health commissioner and city physician now held by Dr. William C. Felton.

Calumet Board Creates Homestead Committee

Votes to Abolish Board of Admissions For Old Age Home

Chilton — A new committee was created by the Calumet county board of supervisors, Tuesday, when it set up a Homestead committee to assist in supervising the administration of the county's home for the aged in New Holstein.

G. J. Hipke, New Holstein, was named chairman with Oscar Schaub, Chilton, and Louis Huijbregtse, Brillion, as members.

Immediately preceding the establishing of the new committee, the board members voted unanimously to close out the Homestead's board of admissions.

Supv. Al Schumacher, Stockbridge, a member of the admissions board, moved that it be discontinued since there is no longer a need of its services.

Oscar Schaub, Chilton supervisor, said the welfare department and board of trustees could easily handle requests for future admissions into the Homestead, which is now operating at full capacity.

In a second motion, the supervisors discharged the Homestead's construction committee.

Huijbregtse, board chairman, complimented the present board of trustees for its outstanding work during the first months of the Homestead's operation.

Pick Committeeman

Ray Rusch, Rantoul, was elected as the fifth member of the county agricultural committee to fill the unexpired term of Fred Behnke, Jr.

Members of the salary committee, unanimously reelected are Lynn Williams, Brillion, chairman, Earl Davis, New Holstein, George A. Schwalbach, Jr., Harrison, Clem Ecker, Stockbridge, and Henry Steenport, Chilton.

Automotive Workers Ask For NLRB Vote

Ask Board to Throw Out Teamsters as Bargaining Agent

Fifteen employees of the Automotive Supply company's Appleton store, 300 N. Appleton street, have petitioned the National Labor Relations board for an election.

The employees want the NLRB to hold the election to throw out the Teamsters as a bargaining agent and to establish the Employees Independent union as their bargaining agent.

The EIU won an NLRB election in the firm's seven outlying offices April 10 to represent about 30 workers. The election did not cover the majority of employees in the firm's Appleton office since they are represented by Local 563 of the Teamsters, under an NLRB order.

Labor Dispute

The NLRB ordered the firm to bargain with the Teamsters after nearly two years of dispute stemming from unfair labor charges brought by the Teamsters. Employees Independent was allowed to intervene on the basis of petitions to represent employees not under Teamster's jurisdiction.

The labor board previously had refused to decertify the Teamsters because the EIU petition was filed while the board was considering the Teamster's unfair labor charges.

EIU President George Behling said that 15 of the 17 employees eligible in the Appleton office have signed the petition. Teamster officials said they are negotiating with officials of the auto parts supply firm and declined to comment on the EIU move.

Man Burns Hand Pouring Gasoline Into Carburetor

C. R. Melchior, 1223 S. Lawe street, burned his hand Wednesday afternoon when the carburetor into which he was pouring gasoline erupted flame.

Mrs. Melchior said he was not burned badly and did not go to the doctor.

City firemen were called to put out the fire in Melchior's automobile, parked in front of 413 W. College avenue. The fire was out when they arrived.

Other fire calls: Firemen put out a flaming rubbish, grass and railroad ties fire at Telulah mill at 11:18 this morning. Trees nearby also caught fire.

Firemen required a large amount of hose to put out a fire in the Packard street dump at 9:21 this morning. They also put out a fire in the dump at 1:27 Wednesday afternoon.

A fence was the main casualty in a grass fire at 111 S. Lee street about 8:55 this morning, firemen said.

A rubbish fire which got away from the property owner at 411 W. Lawrence street was put out by firemen about 12:35 this morning.

So was a leaf and grass fire behind 35, 37 and 39 Bellaire court at 1:37 Wednesday afternoon.

Alderman Wants Board to Improve Interlake Park

An improvement and maintenance program for Interlake park was sought Wednesday night by Ald. Thomas K. Schneider.

A 5-point program which he suggests was submitted as an item of new business at the end of the council meeting and was referred to the park board for study and action.

The five points:

1. Clean up the entire area and keep the grass cut.
2. Place sufficient trash cans in the area.
3. Place several picnic tables and install a few pieces of play equipment in the park area.
4. Build a comfort station.
5. Maintain the grounds on the same regular basis as all other city parks.

The park board recently held 1084 Brother street, Kaukauna, several meetings with people who live in the Jones park area and over much the same kind of request.

It's the real thirst-quencher!

CASE-O-MATIC CHALLENGE

OUR WORD IS OUR BOND. Many farmers saw the great new Case-o-matic tractors outperform competitive models in the recent WORLD PREMIERE film. Now! We challenge all competitive dealers to publicly compete with Case-o-matic Drive tractors in the following three tests, under actual field conditions.

DATE: Saturday, April 19
TIME: 2:00 P.M.
PLACE: Powers Farm

Jerome Schmidt, Owner
3 Miles East of Kaukauna
County Trunk Z

In the event of rain, the challenge will be held at the same time, same location on Sunday, April 20

TEST No. 1 PLOWING PULL-POWER	TEST No. 2 ROAD GEAR PULL-POWER	TEST No. 3 TUG-OF-WAR
Each contestant will pull the same plow in parallel lands in a plowing gear of not less than 3.75 mph. Plow will be stopped at prescribed intervals and depth increased until one of the contestants can pull no more. Winner will be the tractor capable of pulling the plow at the depth where the other failed.	Each contestant will attempt to start and pull a prescribed dead-load in the highest forward gear. The winner will be the tractor capable of moving the load for a minimum distance of 25 feet.	Contestants will be hitched back to back with a rigid 10-foot tow-bar. The tractor drawbars must be locked in fixed position and adjusted to identical heights. Separate Tugs-of-War will be conducted in comparable speeds starting with the highest and progressively shifting to the lower speeds until one or both of the contestants can no longer maintain traction.

The champion of the Case-o-matic Challenge event will be the tractor winning at least two out of the three above-mentioned tests.

RULES GOVERNING THE CONTEST ARE AS FOLLOWS:
RULE 1 Dealers accepting the Challenge must sign the following liability release at least 24 hours prior to the starting time of the Contest.  "I, THE UNDERSIGNED: Being fully aware of the manufacturer's contention that the Case-o-matic Drive tractor(s) can exert up to twice the pull-power of a conventional tractor, and because possible damage may result to my tractor(s), I fully release the Case dealer of all liability both generally and specifically for any partial or complete damage caused to my tractor(s) or for any bodily or mental injuries whatsoever caused to myself or to my driver as a result of participating in the Case-o-matic Challenge Contest." These forms are available at my place of business. 	RULE 2 All contesting tractors must be within the following power classifications: Case-o-matic 800 Allis-Chalmers D-17 Cockshutt 50 John Deere 720 International 450 Massey-Ferguson 444 Minneapolis-Moline 5-Star Oliver 880 Case-o-matic 600 Cockshutt 40 John Deere 620 Ford 961 International 350 Massey-Ferguson 65 Massey-Ferguson 333 Minneapolis-Moline 445 Oliver 770 Case-o-matic 400 Allis-Chalmers D-14 Cockshutt 30 John Deere 520 Ford 600 and 700 International 330 Massey-Ferguson 50 Oliver 550	RULE 3 All competitive tractors must be: a. Of equivalent tire size and type. b. Weighted for maximum drawbar performance within capacity specified by the respective tire manufacturers. c. Current standard production models operated at manufacturer's rated RPM.

NOTE: TO ALL FARMERS, CUSTOMERS AND COMPETING DEALERS . . .

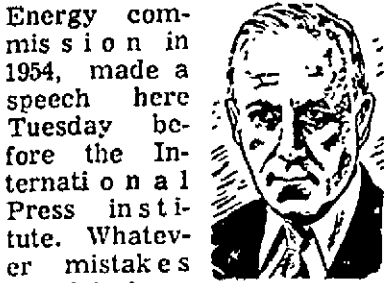

The Case-o-matic Challenge is a fair test of tractor performance and efficiency. We sincerely believe that all farmers are interested in comparing farm tractor performance under normal field conditions. Therefore, any attempt by a contestant to deviate from the prescribed rules, or otherwise rig the competing tractor, or alter tests from normal operating field conditions will automatically void his eligibility.

Lawrence Says:
Newsmen Get Wrong View of Security Case
Oppenheimer Lost
Clearance Because He Didn't Cooperate

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Washington — J. Robert Oppenheimer, who was ruled to be a "security risk" by the Atomic Energy commission in 1954, made a speech here Tuesday before the International Press Institute.

Lawrence
past would not have come into public notice again, but the American chairman of the meeting, in introducing Dr. Oppenheimer, gave to the assembled journalists from all over the world an erroneous impression of why the scientist was denied access to security data. This needs to be clarified lest an important group of newsmen from foreign lands depart with a mistaken concept of what American policy was in this case. The chairman said:

"The charge, in brief, was excessive loyalty to one or two very old friends, and an occasional disdainful attitude toward the cops, and I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen, those are two solid, sterling American traits. Unfortunately they were somewhat out of style during a few months in 1954."

The chairman added that there is "right now an ever-growing demand in these United States, and particularly in the scientific community, that Dr. Oppenheimer be returned to active work for his government."

Some Agree

No doubt there are some Americans who feel that way and sincerely believe that what Dr. Oppenheimer did should not have caused him to be removed from the government councils on scientific matters. But the facts show the atomic energy commission did not remove Dr. Oppenheimer from government councils because of the advice he gave against making the H-bomb but solely because of his lack of cooperation in security matters.

AEC Decision

Thus the decision of the Atomic Energy commission in June 1954 reads in part as follows: "Dr. Oppenheimer has now admitted under oath that while in charge of the Los Alamos laboratory and working on the most secret weapon development for the government, he told Col. Pash a fabrication of lies. Col. Pash was an officer of military intelligence charged with the duty of protecting the atomic weapons project against spies. Dr. Oppenheimer told Col. Pash in circumstantial detail of an attempt by a Soviet agent to obtain from him information about the work on the atom bomb. This was the Haakon Chevalier incident. In the hearings recently concluded, Dr. Oppenheimer under oath swears that the story he told Col. Pash was a 'whole fabrication and tissue of lies.'"

Under Oath

"Dr. Oppenheimer, under oath, admitted to the Gray board that from 1937 to at least 1942 he made regular and substantial contributions in cash to the communist party. He has admitted that he was a 'fellow-traveler' at least until 1942. He admits that he attended small evening meetings at private homes at which most, if not all, of the others present were communist party members. "However, Dr. Oppenheimer's early communist associations are not in themselves a controlling reason for our decision. They take on importance in the context of his persistent and continuing association with communists, including his admitted meetings with Haakon Chevalier in Paris as recently as last December (1953) — the same individual who had been intermediary for the Soviet consulate in 1943. "It is clear that for one who has had access for so long to the most vital defense secrets of the government and who would retain such access if his clearance were continued, Dr. Oppenheimer has defaulted not once but many times upon the obligations that should and must be willingly borne by citizens in the national service. Nothing Like Winner
Old Favorites Given
Television Awards

BY JINGO
Television, in announcing its annual Emmy awards, demonstrated that to the members of the industry, nothing wins like a previous winner.
There were 22 awards for 1957. All but three of the winning programs had received Emmy awards previously, several of them many times.
The backbone of network programming in the past year was composed of westerns, quiz shows, musicals and suspense dramas.
It was therefore interesting to observe that only one western, "Gunsmoke," won an Emmy. The only musical variety show cited by the academy was a previous winner, "The Dinah Shore Show." No quiz show personality was voted a winner.
The only suspense drama cited was "Alfred Hitchcock Presents," which won an award two years ago.
Besides "Gunsmoke" the other first-time winners were a situation comedy, "The Bob Cummings Show" and "Playhouse of Stars," a half-hour drama series.

"Playhouse 90" on four awards in various categories, the largest number of any program. For 1956, it won six awards.
"Omnibus," recipient of several previous awards, won three. "The Phil Silvers Show" won two—and raised its total to nine.
The industry apparently decided that generally the best entertainment of 1957 was to be found on programs which were strong in the previous years.

Jingo's Jewels: Nelson Rockefeller will "Meet the Press" on NBC-TV Sunday at 5 o'clock. A new Soviet film about space and space travel will be shown at the same time across the networks on CBS-TV's "The Twentieth Century." English Actress Yvonne Furneaux has been cast as Cathy in "Wuthering Heights" on CBS-TV May 9. Milton Berle, a TV pioneer who hasn't worked much in years, gave the Emmy show its only lift the other night with his fast quips. The show looked like a junior class play compared with the recent Oscar telecast.
WFRV-TV has obtained a package of old MGM movies and will telecast the first at 9 o'clock Sunday night. It's "Barkley's of Broadway" with Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. The package also will be offered nightly at 9:30

Theodore Cloak to Direct

19th Century Melodrama to Be Presented by Lawrentians

A 19th century melodrama, Dion Boucicault's "Mercy Dodd: Presumptive Evidence" will be the first production to be directed by F. Theodore Cloak for the Lawrence college theater in 18 months.

Director Cloak was in Europe for the calendar year 1957 on a Rockefeller grant, during which time he witnessed 146 plays in seven countries, plus two visits to Broadway, coming and going from the continent.

The domestic melodrama, the work of the English playwright whom Cloak has studied since graduate school days, will be given April 24, 25 and 26 and the weekend of May 1, 2 and 3 as well. It will be given arena style in Memorial union.

Non-Conformist Characters
Characters in the melodrama have been assigned to: Sir Bertie Buckthorne by Peter Negroni, Chicago, Ill.; Reginald, his son by James Fetterly, Milwaukee; Sybil Lennard, his niece, by Beverly Baldwin, Tomah; Josephine DuBoise, his housekeeper by Arlene Nelson, Chicago, Ill.; Matthew Dodd by Walter Scott, Oshkosh; Mercy Dodd, his sister, by Jeanne Voll, 727 E. Franklin street; Will Coreney, alias "Portland Bill" by Charles Fisher, Westchester, Ill.; Bobby Baker, by Jonathan Pearl, Chicago, Ill.; Brassy, a detective, by John Ross, Chicago, Ill.; and A Railway Porter by Joe Kunz, Park Ridge, Ill.

Director Cloak has commented that the characters in the drama are not the stereotyped figures of melodrama as they are usually imagined, but they do conform closely to stock types. This is one of the first productions — its debut was 1869 — that used the character of a detective on the stage.

To heighten the feeling of an evening of 19th century entertainment, Director Cloak has arranged for a series of entr'acte entertainments. There will be a double banjo act by John Peters, Janesville; and Carter Johnson, Rockford, Ill.; a soft shoe dance by Arno Haering, Milwaukee; a male quartet made up of Peter Negroni, Chicago; John Ross, Chicago; Carroll Gonzo; Manitowoc; and David Smith, Milwaukee; as well as a recitation by Emmy Bunks Gallaher, a Lawrence alumna.

During Cloak's European stay, he spent a considerable amount of time working in the British Museum, checking on details of Boucicault's career. Cloak and Allardice Nichol collaborated in editing six of Boucicault's plays, and this melodrama is one of them.

Director Cloak has stated that the work was chosen for the spring performance "because melodrama always has an appeal for audiences, and it gives of view of 19th century acting. Although we do not intend to burlesque the style, we will get as close to the melodramatic technique as possible."

Tickets will be at Bellings.

Dance Hall 'Dandy' Leaves Wife At Home to Answer Girls' Calls

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN: I've been married 15 years and I think I have a problem.

For the last five years my husband has been going to a public dance hall alone every Saturday night. He loves to dance and has won several cups. He says I'm a lousy dancer and it's hopeless to try to teach me. He comes home whenever he feels like it, and sometimes he doesn't feel like it until Sunday morning.

For the first two or three years I didn't mind because the children were small. I thought it was more important to staying at home with them than to go out and police their father. Now I think I'll have to do something, because he's averaging 10 phone calls a week from girls. Not only that, but I found an address book with 32 names and addresses.

I asked him if he wanted a divorce and he said I was crazy. He claims these girls are just dancing partners and that he loves only me. What shall I do?—NOLA

Are you a wife, or a housekeeper with two left feet who doubles as a telephone operator to keep her husband's dancing girls straight?

Tell him you've had enough of his little-boy stuff and if he wants to keep his happy home together he'd better grow up and act like a husband. Since dancing is such an important part of his life, go along with him and watch from the side-lines. When the dance is over, take Fred Astaire home—where he belongs.

DEAR ANN: For the last year and a half I've been dating a boy who thinks a great deal of me. I like him a lot, but I know now that we could never be more than just friends. My problem is this, Ann. He has spent so much money on girls that I just haven't got the heart to tell him how I feel. It keeps getting worse as time goes on. I'm sure he has serious plans for us and I'm becoming increasingly uncomfortable in his presence.

I feel like a fraud, yet I can't bring myself to tell him that I could never return his love. Please, Ann, tell me what to do. This is making a nervous girl out of me.—C.F.D.

If ever there was a "Do It Yourself" project, this is it. And the sooner you do it, the better.

There are times when we must be cruel to be kind. A clean, quick break will be less painful than dragging it out. Stringing him along knowing that he's serious, while you're not, is duplicity of the worse kind. This will only add to your own guilt and compound his heartbreak.

DEAR ANN: My husband's nephew opened a law office recently and we sent him a beautiful leather desk-set.

When we saw this nephew at a family affair some weeks later he thanked us and said he was thrilled with the gift. On the way home, I told my husband I thought it was poor taste for the young man to have waited until he ran into us to say thank you. In my opinion, he should have written a note.

My husband says I'm completely wrong about this, and I expect a great deal. He claims men aren't supposed to write thank-you notes—just women. Is he correct?

Your husband is wrong—and that makes two of 'em. The nephew should have written a note of thanks, or at least telephoned.

Merely being a member of the male sex does not excuse a person from acknowledging a gift. They ACCEPT gifts, don't they? It then follows that they are expected to say thanks.

Service Circle to Hold May 28 Dance

the home of Mrs. Patrick Coughlin, 110 S. Oneida street, with husbands to be guests at the party. Picnic committee comprises the Mmes. Richard Kewley, chairman, Don Killorin, George Kadow and John Lindberg.

Plans for an annual picnic to be held in late May were discussed by the Little Women's circle of King's Daughters Monday night at an assembly at the home of Miss Julie Welhouse, 724 E. Brewster street.

She was assisted by the Mmes. Peterson, Roger Hiebel service, Mrs. Earl Schearier, and Connie Riggles and Miss love gift, Miss Mabel Gillespie, white cross chairman.

In Good Taste

BY EMILY POST
Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I both leave for work in the morning at the same time and ride part of the way together on the subway. When he gets off, he always kisses me good-bye. My sister, who happened to be with us one day, looked rather shocked when he did this and later told me that it is in bad taste to show any display of affection in public. Will you please give me your opinion on this?

Answer: According to strict rule, your sister is right, but at the same time it would depend very much upon how quickly and inconspicuously he did this. A real embrace would of course be in very bad taste.

Seating at Wedding
Dear Mrs. Post: My son plans to be married this June. My husband and I are divorced. He has remarried, but I have not. However, I am engaged to a man whom I have known for some time. We cannot marry at present because of financial obligations. What I would like to know is this: Would it be proper for him to sit beside me in church at my son's wedding? I would like this very much if it is proper. Also, if he may sit next to me, should he enter the church with me, or should he be seated several minutes before?

Answer: It will be quite proper for him to sit beside you, but he should be seated before you.

Sprites Versus Sputnik at World Fair; USA, USSR Rivals Again

Brussels, Belgium — The Russian pavilion at the Brussels world's fair may have Sputnik, but the American pavilion has girls.

And although Russia spent more than 50 million dollars on her exhibit while the United States spent less than 15 millions, Uncle Sam wins the beauty laurels, hands down. The great circular glass-and-gold American pavilion dominates the colorful fair grounds. It is in happy contrast with the somewhat grim facade of the Russian building next door, an austere rectangular structure with an ironwork arrangement on top suggesting a concentration camp.

The pretty American hostesses in their trim grey suits and bronze-color berets are much in evidence at the U. S. pavilion, as are the glamorous models exhibiting typically American clothes in a continuous fashion show.

In the Soviet balliwick you see 10-ton machines, stony-faced male guides—and of course, Sputnik. The Russians will have hostesses too, they say, but at a press preview today they were nowhere in sight. An interpreter explained that their uniforms had not arrived.

The Russians also plan to show Soviet fashions, says their Commissioner General, Dimitry A. Rykov, but there will be no live models.

The Russian commissioner, a large, handsome deadpan type, surprised the assembled international press by issuing an invitation to come to the USSR pavilion and ask him questions. The questions—from some 2,000 correspondents of all nations—came in French, Flemish, German and English and were translated.

One question concerned the model home which is part of the Russian exhibit. This is an apartment furnished in early mail-order modern, with somewhat primitive looking electrical appliances in the pint-size kitchenette and rudimentary plumbing in the yellow-tiled bathroom. The commissioner admitted that in 12 to 15 years the average Russian might achieve this kind of housing.

After the conference the correspondents were invited to partake of caviar and vodka in the pavilion restaurant. This was reached with some difficulty, after many inquiries which landed part of the group in the rest rooms. Most finally found their way to the restaurant by shouting "caviar" at the guides. This they understood.

Opening today, the Brussels international exposition is at this stage a great, colorful, beautiful and far-from-complete panorama in which most of the nations of the world are putting their best foot forward.

With so much attention focused on the rival Russian and American exhibits, how can Uncle Sam lose with pretty guides, glamorous models and the breathtaking circarama, a full-circle cinerama of life in the U. S. A.?

Short-Cut Way to Make Smart Tailored Pillows

Try an extra easy way to make the summer furniture more comfortable. This method cuts down the number of pieces for a square or rectangular box pillow, requires only one seam and uses a minimum of welting.

Cut two large squares or rectangles big enough to cover one side of the pillow and to extend to half the depth of the pillow, plus a quarter-inch to a half-inch for the seam. Then, with the fabric wrong side out, sew the corners of each piece to make the half-box shape, as sketched. The welting goes into this one seam between the two pillow cover halves—half as much welting as would be needed to outline the pillow both front and back. An unboxed pillow tick with feather or kapok in it can be turned into a fit for this cover shape—simply tuck in the corners and tack them to stay that way.

County Can't Pay For Weed Notice
Freedom Supv. Joseph Weyers Wednesday told the Outagamie county board that plan for a single large weed-cutting notice could not be worked out in time for this year.
Weyers said it was not legal for the county to pay for such a notice and there was not enough time to work out a plan with the towns before the weed-notice publication date.
The plan had been suggested as a solution to many small notices published by each town.

Fox Cities May Lose Its Taste Of Summer
Another day of summery weather sent temperatures upward in the Fox Cities today, but the weatherman predicts a cooler trend in most of the state by Friday.
The thermometer reached 76 degrees by 11:15 this morning in Appleton, according to the weather station of the Wisconsin Michigan Power company. This was after an overnight low of 50 degrees and a high point of 74 Wednesday.
On the state scene, temperatures were soaring toward the 80s this morning. Cooler air is reported ready to roll into northern Wisconsin tonight.
The mercury hit the 70s and low 80s again Wednesday. Those highs were 18 to 23 degrees above normal for mid-April. La Crosse topped the state with a high of 82. Eau Claire and Grantsburg recorded 81, Lone Rock and Madison 80, Beloit 79, Lake Geneva and Pewaukee 78, Wausau 77, Green Bay, Park Falls and Superior 75 and Milwaukee 74.
No rain or snow was reported over most of Wisconsin for the tenth straight day.

Meat Unchanged
The meat picture hasn't changed in the last few months. Chickens from 35 cents a pound for fryers are an excellent buy and the most economical.
Just about all other meats are high and meat dealers won't predict any break in the near future. And among the highest cuts are picnic favorites—not particularly good news for lovers of outdoor eating.
A look at Appleton price tags shows rib roast from 79 to 89 cents, round steak from 85 to 89 cents, sirloin from 89 to $1.09, leg of lamb at 79 cents, pork steak from 55 to 59 cents, pork chops from 79 to 89 cents, veal loin roast at 69 cents and shoulder veal steak at 79 cents a pound.
Eggs have gone up a few cents with a dozen Grade A large pegged from 51 to 55 cents.

More Fresh Vegetables Appearing on Counters
Only Few Fruits, Meat Cuts Found To be Good Buys in Appleton Stores

The supply of fresh vegetables — most of it appearing to be of excellent quality—is increasing in Appleton food stores. On the other hand, there are few good buys in fruits and most meat continues on the high level it's held for the last several months.
Although warm weather vegetables are pegged higher than they will be when home-grown produce comes to market, a good many of them can be classified as good buys for right now.
Among top vegetable buys are radishes at 5 cents a bunch, green onions at 10 cents a bunch, spinach at 29 cents a bunch, asparagus from 19 to 23 cents a pound, peas in the pod at 25 cents a pound and snap beans at 29 cents a pound.
High Priced
High priced are celery at 39 cents a stalk, cucumbers at 29 cents apiece, green peppers at 89 cents a pound or about 29 cents apiece, wax beans at 39 cents a pound, green cabbage at 13 cents a pound, red cabbage at 15 cents a pound, Wisconsin potatoes at 10 pounds for 69 cents and Idaho potatoes at 10 pounds for 89 cents.
Lemonade time is approaching and, fortunately, lemons are about the best buy the shopper will find on fruit counters this weekend. At 38 cents a dozen, they're probably about as cheap as they'll come this year. Another excellent buy is rhubarb at 19 cents a pound.
Other citrus fruits are high—grapefruit are 10 for 69 cents while Florida juice and California eating oranges both are 79 cents a dozen.
Apples are on their way out for the season. Winesaps, long the cheapest on the market, are tagged at 15 cents a pound. Also high are honeydew melons at 49 cents and cantaloupe at 59 cents apiece. Grapes, too, are high at 39 cents a pound and the quality is dubious.

management of major defense programs." Eisenhower said the fears of critics are "at the least mis-conceptions" and at the most misrepresentations. "I repeat," Eisenhower said, "There will be: "No single chief of staff; "No Prussian staff; "No czar; "No $40 billion blank check; "No swallowing up of the traditional services; "No undermining of the constitutional powers of congress."

Cites Red Danger In urging speedy action by congress, Eisenhower said, "communist imperialism persists in striving to master the world."

Among other international problems, Eisenhower listed: "Germany remains divided. Eastern European nations remain enslaved."

"Turmoil and bitterness plague north Indonesia, the Middle East and parts of North Africa."

"France, our historic ally, has major difficulties. "New weapons of fantastic power appall the world. Humanity now threatens its own existence."

Eisenhower said prevention of war—"or, in the tragedy of war, to win it"—is the whole purpose of America's huge defense establishment.

"Its success requires one single basic scheme, under single direction," the president said. "That scheme is our strategic plan. The single direction is provided by our highest military chiefs, acting in unity under civilian control."

Must Meet Requirements Referring to interservice rivalries and also quite likely to opposition to the reorganization plan on the part of some military men, Eisenhower said:

"In short, it is high time for all of us to pay more attention to America's strategic requirements and less to individual service claims."

"The fact is, modern weapons have scrambled traditional service functions. Interservice controversy and confusion are the result. This simply means that our military weapons and techniques and certain provisions of law just do not mesh. "I am quite sure that the American people feel it is far more important to be able to hit the target than it is to nag over who makes a weapon or who pulls a trigger."

Must Remain Secure Eisenhower said that in the last five years U. S. military expenditures have come to $200 billion. He went on: "All of us deplore this vast military spending. Yet, in the face of the Soviet attitude, we realize its necessity. Whatever the cost, we must keep America secure.

"But in the process we must not, by our own hand, destroy America. This we could do by useless overspending. Thus we would undermine the economic strength on which our freedom and military power depend. I know one sure way to overspend. That is by indulging sentimental attachments to outmoded military machines and concepts."

"Paraphrasing an American patriot, our motto must be: Billions for defense; not one cent for heedless waste."

"Such considerations I have placed before congress in a message on defense reorganization. The purpose is clear. It is safety with solvency. The country is entitled to both."

B and O Baltimore to New York Passenger Service to End April 26

Baltimore —(AP)—The Baltimore and Ohio railroad, the nation's oldest, is discontinuing its Baltimore to New York passenger service with the change to daylight saving time April 27.

The six trains daily in each direction will make their last runs Saturday night, April 26. New Jersey gave its approval yesterday and Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania had consented earlier.

The B and O has been running the trains for 72 years. The railroad said the trains became too much of a financial burden because patronage dropped 46 per cent since 1946.

Illness Causes Delay In Roosevelt Speech

Denver —(AP)—A mild attack of food poisoning caused Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) to delay for about an hour an address to the Allied Jewish Community council here last night.

Apologizing to his audience, Roosevelt blamed the attack on food he ate at "the House (of representatives) restaurant in Washington."

The congressman flew here from Washington for his address, in which he said the Eisenhower administration has led this country into the unfortunate position of being on the defensive in foreign affairs.

Three-I league ball got a boost the other day from Detroit pitching ace Jim Bunning, brother-in-law of Mrs. Gene Clark. Bunning, who visited here last weekend while the Tigers had exhibition business at the home of the Braves, said that the 3-I league features a real good brand of ball and that the people of the Fox Cities will enjoy it. Gene Appleton St. Mary's highly successful coach gave Bunning a look at Goodland field, and Jim said it is a fine park. Many of the boys Clark coaches at St. Mary came to his house Saturday night to meet Bunning, and Gene says they almost mobbed the mound star in front of church Sunday morning.

Bunning says that Billy Martin is happy to be with the Tigers and feels that the one-time Yankee will help the club. "Don't believe everything you read about Martin," says Bunning. "Bill's a great guy who really wants to win." When asked how he liked his switch to center field, Harvey Kuenn replied, "It's like getting out of prison." The Clarks, who saw both weekend games in Milwaukee, report that the Tigers' Wisconsin delegation was very popular. Kuenn had his following from Milwaukee: "Red" Wilson was surrounded by a group of his Madison friends; and Billy Hoelt was greeted by a large Oshkosh contingent. Appleton's Russ Skall was down to see Tiger outfielder Lou Skizas, with whom he played service ball. Bunning said he hoped to see the Clarks again in October—preferably during a Tigers-Braves World Series.

Appleton's Ralph Gertsch got a first-hand look at the Fox Cities ball club and met Manager Pete Suder during his recent trip to Florida. Gertsch was impressed most by the Foxes' pitching. We certainly hope the various glowing reports we've heard on the Foxes' mound potential prove correct. In any formula for winning baseball, there is no substitute for good pitching.

The word filtering out of the Green Bay Packer command post is that the Bays may employ a multiple offense this fall. At least, that's one of the things "Scooter" McLean is discussing with his assistants. McLean, who feels a more flexible offense is one of the Packers' needs, says the slot formation will remain basic. But, he may throw in a little single wing, a spread and a man in motion. He feels that the Packers have versatile enough personnel to make a go of it. For example, Paul Hornung would be an ideal single wing tailback. And, ends like Billy Howton, Max McGee, Steve Meilinger and Ron Kramer could be used at halfback on a spot basis.

Early returns indicate the Packers should be able to match their 23,000 season ticket sale of last year. The higher price, brought on by the addition of another home game, hasn't dampened the renewal rate. As of Tuesday, about 12,500 season requests were in. Of these, 2,000 were new and the rest renewals.

The venerable 3-I league is one of the seven organizers of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues. The other charter leagues were the Eastern (later the International), the Western, the New York State (later the Eastern), the Pacific Northwest, the Western association and the New England. The National association was formed in 1901 as a means of survival for the minors who were caught in the cross-fire of war between the established National league and the newly-spawned American league. There were no holds barred as the two majors "stole" players from each other and from the minors. This all happened in the inaugural year of the 3-I, the oldest Class B league.

Lawrence Resumes Baseball With 17-Player Squad

Vikes Begin 8-Game Season Wednesday Against Oshkosh

A 17-player Lawrence college baseball team is preparing to undertake an 8-game schedule, which features four home contests in the season's first eight days.

The club will be the first to represent Lawrence since World War II when, with the Navy V-12 unit on the campus, a Vike team played in the Outagamie County League.

Coach Don Boya's Vikes began indoor practice in mid-March and have been drilling daily outdoors (on the South Side Athletic club diamond) for 11 weeks.

Open Against Oshkosh
The season opener will be against Oshkosh State college Wednesday. After that, Lawrence will entertain Knox college, Friday, Stevens Point State college Saturday and Ripon the following Wednesday. The Vikings play one more home tilt, with St. Norbert, May 10.

Senior lefthander Bert Elliott is the club's top pitcher, at present, according to Boya. Behind Elliott are George "Purk" Purucker, a senior, and Karl Franke, a sophomore. Both are right-handers.

When Elliott isn't pitching he'll probably get the call at first base. Other first base candidates are senior Don Wolf and junior Ken Haberle. Expected to start at the other infield positions are: Rick Ramsey at third base, Harry Hartoonian at shortstop and Mike Gilboy at

3-I League Sidelights

'Old Pro of Braves' Farm System' To Play With Cedar Rapids This Year

Cedar Rapids' Horace Garner, 32, may well be the oldest player in the Three I league this season. Known as "the old pro of the Milwaukee Braves' farm system," Garner is starting his eighth season in pro ball.

Garner won't be distinguished by his age alone. He also figures to be one of the toughest hitters in the circuit. Last year, with Evansville, Garner compiled the league-leading average of .334. In 1956, he hit a booming .354.

Garner was rookie of the year in the Northern league as he hit .359, the loop's best mark.

Garner's highest advance has been to Class A. The feeling is that his age has been against him in a bid to hit the top minors or the majors. He was 24 when he broke into organized ball.

If spring exhibition play is any criterion, the league will boast a number of sluggers besides Garner. There's Fred Caviness, of Burlington, for example. The other day he blasted three home runs in a 15-12 win over Pueblo.

Caviness is getting another chance with the Burlington Bees this year. A shoulder injury hampered him last year, and he hit only .196 for a half-season with the Bees.

The Green Bay Bluejays' most publicized spring training slugger has been Frank Howard, the $50,000 bonus player, but first baseman Andy Vanderveide has been their most consistent hitter. In a recent game against triple-A Montreal, Vanderveide socked a triple and a single off Babe Birrer, a 1-time major leaguer.

The 6-6 Howard was in a slump for a while but snapped out of it with three sharp singles in five tries. The report is that Howard is having a little trouble with the change-up—a tip-off that 3-I hurlers may try a little of the same against him.

Former Chicago Cub pitcher Clay Bryant, who manages Montreal in the Dodger farm system, has set a goal for Howard of 30 homers and a bat mark of .305-.315 this season.

Giants Get 5 Singles
The left-hander allowed the Giants just five singles.

Rookie third baseman Dick Gray and veteran outfielder Duke Snider sent the Dodgers winging with 2-run homers in the only National league game scheduled.

Duke's traveled more than 400 feet and completely over the right field bleachers. He connected in the third inning on a low change-up pitch from Giants starter Ramon Montant, who also served up the ball that Gray put into the left field bleachers in the second inning.

Foxes to Get New Electric Scoreboard

Howard Bowers Is Named Club's Official Scorer

Goodland field will be graced by a new electric scoreboard for Fox Cities Foxes' games this year. Business manager Bob Willis announced this morning.

The Foxes have also named a new official scorer, Howard Bowers. Bob Cole, who had been appointed originally, was forced to resign because of the press of business.

The McClone Lumber company was low bidder ($1,754, including all hardware) on the contract for a new fence, according to Willis. Construction of the new wood fence has begun.

Bluejays Set 'Open House'

Public Practice At Joannes Park Slated April 25

Green Bay — The Green Bay Bluejays, due to arrive from their Vero Beach, Fla., training base next week, are going to hold an "open house" for their fans.

Mindful of the fact the Bluejays will be opening their Three-I league season on the road April 27 and will be traveling the first week, the Community Baseball association today announced plans for a "Bluejay Booster night" public practice at Joannes park Friday night, April 25.

Designed to introduce "Pistol" Pete Reiser's charges to their fans, the "open house" will start at 7:30.

3-Inning Game

A feature of the program will be a 3-inning intra-squad game, which is likely to find Reiser making a rare active appearance as a "pinch hitter."

The Bluejays are scheduled to arrive in Green Bay next Thursday, April 24. They will fly home, along with the Kokomo, Ind., club, in the Dodgers' own Convair. They are expected to land at Austin Straubel field at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. They immediately will be ushered to waiting automobiles for a convertible parade of the city's business district.

Will Classify ARD Industrial Softball Clubs

Meeting Slated Monday; 4 Clubs Sign For Classic Loop

A meeting to classify the 17 teams which have registered for Appletton Recreation department Industrial league play into divisions will be held at 7 o'clock Monday evening in city hall.

The three new teams which have signed for Industrial loop activity are: Appletton Wire Works, Appletton Police and Brady company.

Teams that had entered the Industrial league previously are Appletton Coated, Elm Tree, Pierce Auto, Kurz-Root, August Winter, Interlake, IPC, Riverside No. 1, Riverside No. 2, Power Company, Miller Electric, United Grocers, Post-Crescent and Krambo Food.

Membership Open

League membership is still open. Monday's meeting will classify 17 teams on the basis of last year's records or potential strength. The ARD would like to set up three divisions, as it had last season.

The Fraternal league is set with eight clubs. The High school boys, with James Choudoir as manager, is the latest addition.

Other clubs are Company A, EMTP, Rod Gun Club, Company D, COF, YMCA and UCT. Twenty players will be allowed on each roster. June 16 is the last date to sign new team members.

Four clubs have signed for a proposed Classic league, indicating that the circuit may be re-formed after a 1-year lapse. Newly-registered outfits, with managers' names, are SSAC, Jack Kottke; Riverside No. 1, Jerry De Decker, and St. Paul, Dick Hinz.

Subway bar had signed for the circuit earlier. A 6-team league is sought. Interested persons should contact the ARD office.

One club is still needed for an 8-team Church loop. All Saints, Ken Ligare, manager; and Zion, John Gurholt, manager, are new additions to the loop. Others are Faith Lutheran, St. Joseph, St. Paul, St. Mary, and First Methodist.

Expect Record Crowd For Dodgers' Opener

By The Associated Press

Major league baseball stages its second "opening" day Friday—home affairs for the clubs that started the 1958 season on the road Tuesday—and figures to write in all time attendance record with 90,000-plus expected at the coliseum for the home debut of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

That multitude would top all baseball records, whether for a World Series game, double-header or single game in either league.

"We Think Big"

It also gives an indication of what Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson had in mind when, while making his pitch to Dodger brass in the spring of 1957 at Vero Beach, Fla., he declared "We think big out there."

By comparison, it took the Dodgers eight home dates to Key and Rudolph were co-medalists, along with Eddie Hopkins of Abilene, Texas, for the 72 holes of qualifying play preceding the 36-hole matches involving the 16 survivors last Sunday. Each scored 286, two under par. At no time during the tournament did the Georgian have a round over 73.

Frank Bolling's 3-Run, 2-Out Homer in Ninth Stops White Sox, 5-4

Kansas City Wallops Indians, 9-4, To Share Lead; Sox Down Yankees

By The Associated Press

The Detroit Tigers, long frustrated in American league pennant races by stumbling starts, had the makings of a soup-up getaway today — thanks to one trade they made and another that they didn't make.

It was Frank Bolling, the second baseman Cleveland wanted but didn't get, who wrapped up a 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox Wednesday. With two out in the ninth, he hit a 3-2 pitch for a 3-run homer.

Athletics Share First

A trade with Kansas City provided the payoff in Tuesday's 4-3 opening-day victory at Chicago with Billy Martin, the big man in the big deal, getting the single that clinched it.

Kansas City held a share of first place with Detroit after wallopping Cleveland, 9-4. Bob Cerv drove in five runs with two doubles and a homer.

Boston finally won one, defeating the New York Yankees 3-1 on a 2-run homer by Jackie Jensen and Dave Sisler's 7-hit pitching in the only other AL game scheduled.

The Tigers hadn't won their first two since 1955 — and that was the year they finished second.

Bolling, a 28-year-old Alabamian whose brother also is on the club, followed up his 2-for-4 day in the opener with 4-for-5 yesterday. He lined three consecutive singles off Dick Donovan before tagging the big right-hander for the home run.

The "powerless" White Sox had two home runs — "Bubba" Phillips' first and Sherm Lollar's second of the season — among 10 hits off six Tiger pitchers. Tom Morgan started, but George Spencer, No. 5, was the winner. Charlie Maxwell also homered for Detroit.

Donovan Weakens

The Sox scored three runs in the first two innings and had a 4-1 lead after six.

Donovan yielded only two hits in the first five innings. Then he weakened in the seventh when the Tigers scored on successive line drive singles and a sacrifice fly.

Cerv built his 2-day RBI total to seven with his first homer, a two-run shot in the ninth off Dick Tomaneck, last of half a dozen Cleveland hurlers. Ray Narleski failed to finish the first, when the A's scored five. Ralph Terry struck out Rochester may have the tallest mound corps in the league. Topping the uniformly big staff are Bill Schoof and Leon Webrand, both 6-foot-5.

The Green Bay roster still numbers 12 pitchers. Manager Pete Reiser will have to wield the axe shortly.

Burlington will have a number of players besides Cavanaugh for an encore season with the club. They include third baseman Jim Woods, outfielder Louis Johnson and infielder Dave Hanrahan. A peppery player, Hanrahan is known as the loudest whistler in the league.

Cedar Rapids Manager Alex Monchak brought his star pitcher from pennant-winning Wells, ville (Class D New York-Pennsylvania league) with him to his new club. He's Luis De Leon, who won 17 and lost only five. De Leon looked sharp the other day, pitching four perfect relief innings against Boise.

Burlington will hold its "Welcome Bees" banquet the night of the season opener, April 27. The Green Bay Bluejays, the Bees' afternoon opponent, will also be banquet guests. A concert by the Burlington municipal band will be part of the opening-day ceremonies.

Milwaukee — Wednesday night, Milwaukee Braves pitcher Lew Burdette was saluted as Wisconsin's "Athlete of the Year" for 1957, and as such received the "Red" Dunn award.

Burdette had little to say except to mention that his on-the-road roommate, Warren Spahn won the award last year and add, "I'm keeping pretty good company."

Only Differences

Tributes were paid Burdette by Braves' General Manager John Quinn and Larry "Moon" Mullins, athletic director at Marquette university who presented a plaque in the name of Dunn, a great quarterback at Marquette who went on to call signals for the Green Bay Packers as they won the National Football league title in 1929, '30 and '31.

Bob Cerv, a 200-pound outfielder is not so fast on his feet, and he's weak on the throws that cut down base runners, but his bat has driven in seven runs in two games.

Bob, 32, oldest regular in the A's youthful lineup, smashed a 400-foot home run and two doubles Wednesday. He drove in five runs as the Athletics clobbered the Cleveland Indians, 9-4.

The A's, tied with the Detroit Tigers for the American league lead, have looked every inch the battling, running ball club Manager Harry Craft has promised for 1958. But even Cerv didn't expect the run-making Cerv and his teammates to explode against supposedly strong Cleveland pitching.

"We will play a tighter defense," Cerv said.

league bowled its final session earlier in the week.

SSAC Auxiliary (49-35) copied the circuit crown by 31 games over Selig's. There were no other honor scores. Splits were solved by Leon Fomochek 2-7; Susie Sonnenberg 2-7; Pauline Koestler 3-10; Esther Zimmer 5-7-8; Lorraine Wicinski 4-9-10; Lois Schreiner 5-10; Gail Trunk 4-7-10; Carol Heegeman 3-10; Shirley Hintz 5-7.

Covington May Start Drills Soon

Wes Covington's ailing knee is on the mend and he may be able to get back into the Milwaukee Braves' lineup before the end of the month.

The report was furnished Wednesday by Dr. Bruce Brewster who has been treating Covington since he jammed his left knee sliding into home plate with the deciding run in an exhibition game with the Los Angeles Dodgers last week in Dallas, Tex.

Covington is scheduled to see Dr. Brewster again Friday and if the knee meets requirements, the flyhawk will be able to start working out daily at the stadium Saturday. Covington will miss the first road trip for the Braves which starts Friday. The club returns home April 25.

Garmaker Hits 34 As West '5' Tips East, 137 to 131

Pasco, Wash. — The West rallied behind the 34-point barrage of Dick Garmaker Wednesday night and whipped the East, 137-131, in the touring East-West professional All-Star series.

The West jumped off to a 24-3 lead at the start of the game but lost the advantage at 65-63 late in the second period, as the East put on an amazing show of accuracy at the free throw line.

The lead changed several times in the third period and the two teams went into the final three minutes even. Garmaker, Bob Pettit and George Yardley sparked the West from then on to the final buzzer.

Tom Heinsohn led East scoring with 26 points. The West led, 69-67, at the half.

John Erickson Recommended As UW Aide

Regents Will be Asked to Approve Former Beloit Star

Madison — (U) — Wisconsin Athletic Director Ivy Williamson said Wednesday it has been proposed that a full-time assistant be hired for Basketball Coach "Bud" Foster who has had only part-time aid in his 24 years at the university.

Recommended for the post was John Erickson, former Beloit college star who is now basketball coach at Lake Forest (Ill.) college. Williamson said the appointment must be acted upon by the board of regents at a meeting May 2 before it can become final.

Assisted at Beloit

Fred Wegner has been assisting Foster part-time since 1937, and he will apparently remain on the coaching staff, but his exact assignment has not been determined. Wegner is also assistant baseball coach and an associate professor in physical education.

After graduating from Beloit in 1949 Erickson was an assistant there for two years. Then he took over as cage coach at Stevens Point High school where his 1951 team won 27 and lost 3 and went to the championship round of the state high school basketball tournament before losing to South Milwaukee.

Erickson has been coach at Lake Forest since 1955. He and Foster have been friends since Erickson was at Stevens Point.

Pinch-Hitters Have Futile Time at Plate

New York — (U) — Pinch-hitters had a futile time at the plate in Wednesday's three American league games. Fifteen pinch-swingers went to bat and none connected safely. Two of them received bases on balls. The other 13 were retired.

Action begins Saturday in the fourth, seventh and eighth grade loops. The fifth and sixth grade leagues get underway Monday and Tuesday, respectively.

Games will be played at Lincoln, Edison, Erb park, Columbus, Jones park, Pierce park and Wilson.

The initial game in the eighth grade circuit Saturday matches the Vikings, captained by Donald Schinke, and the Screwwalls (John Kading.) The Blue Sox (Don Marx) receive a bye.

Demons Play Eagles

Seventh Grade loop contests Saturday pair St. Paul (Bob Buss) and the Colts (Pete Zan-zig), the Demons (Mark Johnson) and the Eagles (Mike Kaphingst), the Indians (Michael Collar) and the Raiders (Alan Krabbe). The Rods (John Hubner) have a bye.

In the American division of the Sixth Grade wheel Tuesday the St. Paul Bombers (Wayne Koenig) play the Leopards (Paul Schumaker) the Spartans (Ronald Saker) meet the Flyswatters ("Chip" Taggart), and the Golden Eagles (Peter Wetak) play the Hotshots (Dean Mueller).

Michigan '11' Opens Drills

17 Lettermen, 3 Starters Return From '57 Squad.

Ann Arbor, Mich. — (U) — Michigan's Wolverines have begun the difficult task of trying to pull out of their football nosedive.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan Wednesday opened what he hopes will be a brief leveling-off period at the first spring practice session.

"This is our rebuilding stage," Oosterbaan said. "We have more regulars to replace than usual and there will be more player switches, this spring because of it."

102 in Uniform

Oosterbaan had 102 hopefuls in uniform Wednesday. Seventeen of last year's 40 lettermen are on the 1958 roster. But only three starters remain from the team that compiled a 5-3-1 record.

Oosterbaan, opening his eleventh season, immediately began tinkering with two players who are probable first stringers. Don Deskins, a 240-pound sophomore, was running at guard instead of at tackle as expected. Bob Ptacek, a veteran left halfback, was given a try at quarterback.

Bobby Boyd Wins Handily Over Rivers

Chicago — (U) — "I just told him that he had better win or he would have to start way at the bottom of the ladder and would be fighting in Hoboken or somewhere."

It's Bernie Glickman speaking. He manages middleweight Bobby Boyd, 24. Bob took him seriously.

The long-armed Chicagoan two years ago the No. 1 middleweight contender, unloaded a variety of punches and pounded away steadily to defeat Neal Rivers Wednesday night.

It was an impressive victory for Boyd, who is in trying to come back after being clubbed out in 1956 by Joey Giardello.

Rivers, ranked No. 8 by the NBA, had only one good round in the nationally-televised bout in Chicago stadium. The decision was about as lopsided as it could get.

Only 872 customers turned up at the ringside and the net gate was $800.

Hortonville Baseball Team Sets Practice

The Hortonville baseball club of the Wolf River Valley league's Southern division has scheduled a practice for 1:30 Sunday afternoon at the Hortonville field.

Anyone interested in playing with the club should attend the workout.

Braves (Keith Gibson) and the Southsiders (Gary Hietpas) have a bye.

In the Fifth Grade wheel's American division Monday the Hornets (James Sensenbrenner) meet the Fireballs (Bruce Miller), the Hot Hitters (Tom Arens) meet the Spitfires (LeRoy Kiepe) and the Eagles (John Mueller) battle the Indians (Neil Weber).

Badgers Meet Cobras

In Monday National division contests the Eagles (Tom Rankin) play the Colts (Rex Kessler) the Jefferson Terrors (Barry Helms) meet the Jaguars (Michael Hart) and the Badgers (Paul DeNoble) meet the Edison Cobras (Marvin Ank-lam).

In the Fourth Grade American division Saturday the Franklin Stealers (Steve Winter) battle the Comets (Dick Erickson) the Lincoln Wildcats (Jerry Feistel) meet the Edison Eagles (Gorham Kindem) and the Hard Hitters (Robert Anderson) have a bye.

In the Fourth Grade loop's National division Saturday the Edison Rockets (Mike Crowe) meet the Little Braves (Michael DeYoung), the Bobcats (James Winkler) tangle with the Vandegars (Peter Schmitz) and the Franklin Terrors (Gary McIntyre) have a bye.

Selbach Fans 10 of 12 Hitters To Face Him; Menasha Pitchers Set Down Lions With One Blow

Menasha — Getting another sparkling pitching effort, Menasha turned back Brillion 7-1 here Wednesday afternoon to chalk up its third straight win of the spring.

Gordy Selbach, Ken Konezke and Don Kaufert combined to hold the Lions to a single hit. Selbach and Konezke had held the Brillionites hitless in posting a 6-0 triumph just a week ago.

Selbach turned in a brilliant effort. He hurled the first four innings, set 12 hitters down in order and whiffed 10 of the dozen batsmen to face him.

Safe on Error

Konezke pitched the fifth and sixth and allowed one runner to reach base on an error by shortstop Dave Robinson in the sixth. He was balked to second.

Hansen, who got the loss in last week's Jay game, took over in the second inning and set nine hitters down in order until the Jays combed him for an unearned run in the fifth. The score was 6-0 when he took over.

Menasha got to starter Den-ny Gotter for a run in the first inning. Dave Neubauer led off with a double and was sacrificed to second by Tom Rempel. Selbach then drilled a single to left to score the Jay leadoff man from second.

Five Runs in 2nd

The Jays went to work for five runs on four hits, including two homers, in the second. Jerry Koslowski was an out- fielder out to open activity but Bill Bauer walked. Jim Wilde then poked a drive to center field and when the ball bounced over the fielder's outstretched glove, Wilde continued all the way around the bases for a homer, scoring Bauer ahead of him.

Robinson singled to left and Neubauer's pop fly fell in short left field for another one baser. Rempel whacked a long drive to right for a four - base clout, scoring two runners ahead of him.

Hansen then replaced Gotter and struck out Selbach and forced Nelson to pop out.

Beats Out Hit

In the fifth, Rempel was safe on an error and took second on a passed ball. He went to third when Selbach beat out an infield hit.

Selbach then headed for second to start double steal but Rempel was caught off third on a cutoff play. Selbach reached third when Nelson was safe on an error and he scored on Ken Konezke's infield out. The Jays were up and down in order in the sixth.

Pulaski Next For Menasha '9'

Menasha — Coach Carl Steffin's Menasha Bluejays bid for their fourth straight win Friday afternoon when they entertain Pulaski. Game time will be 4 o'clock. The game will be played at Cal-der field if the ball park is not available.

The Raiders trimmed Menasha 5-3 at Pulaski last year when four long fly balls were carried to extra base hits by a powerful wind. John Stor-zer, who was their coach, is now head football and base- ball mentor at Ripon college. Last year's starters expected to be back in action are right fielder Leroy Dornen, cen-terfielder Lloyd Blaszyk, left fielder Tom Winter, second- baseman Wayne Naparella and first baseman Charles Dorn.

but remained there as Konez-ke put down the final two hit- ters. Two of his outs were via strikeouts.

Kaufert, a sophomore in- fielder converted to a pitcher this year, gave a solid double to Bruce Belanger in the seventh. The young pitcher committed two balks which took the run- ner to third and then home. Another hitter walked but he was erased in a game-ending double play.

Fine Relief Effort
Coach Jerry Schmidt's Bril- lion nine got a nifty relief per- formance from lefty Bob Han- sen, who had hurled seven in- nings against St. Mary the pre- ceding day. Unfortunately for the Lions, when he took over all the damage had been done.

Beaver Dam, Ripon Vie With Menasha High in Triangular Tangle

Menashans Seek 2nd Straight Win of Young Season; Beavers Impressive in 1st Outing

Menasha — Coach Bernie Le Roy's Menasha cindermen bid for their second straight win of the week when they engage in their initial triangular of the season Friday at Ripon. The host Tigers and Beaver Dam complete the three team field. The Bluejays rolled over an undermanned New London club 93-16 in their first meet Tues- day afternoon.

For the Jays, it will be their first three cornered event with this set of opponents. In past years they were involved in tri- angulars at Ripon with West Bend or Oshkosh as the third school.

Berlin last Monday. He threw the discus 124 feet, 1 inch.

John Diedrich, a fine half miler, did 2:12 in the 880 in his first outing and Mike Camp- bell did 4:54.8 in the mile. The Tigers, coached by Jim Seidl, collected eight firsts against Berlin but lacked depth and were outpointed.

Fine Weightman
Ripon doesn't have too many veterans on its squad but the few returnees are good athle- tes. They are headed by Mike Williams, an outstand in g weightman. He consistently throws the shot over 45 feet and had a toss of 48 feet, 2 in- ches in his team's 66-52 loss to Tuesday night at Menasha Rec- reation.

Anderson also had a 204 game and closed with 556. Mul- zer hit a 212 line. Clarence Braun had 526 and Wally Baumer 203.

Wayside Inn led the teams with an 839 game and 2,385 se- ries. Sundrop leads with a 31- 10 record. Wayside has 281- 13, Broadway 251-161 and Big Pete's 25-17.

Class A School
Not too much is known about Beaver Dam, although it is a class A school and dumped Horicon and Mayville in a tri- angular Tuesday. The Beavers rolled up 107 points to 73 for Horicon and 32 for Mayville.

A sophomore, Merlin Noren- berg, scored 171 points for the winners. He ran the 100 in 10.6 seconds, the 220 in 24.2 seconds and threw the shot 41 feet, 11 1/2 inches. He also ran a leg on the winning relay team which won in 1:39.7.

Another Beaver Dam star, Dennis Caves copied the low hurdles in 22.8 seconds and the 440 in 55.7 seconds.

Leading Menasha entries in- clude Jerry Sobieszczyk and Tom Stepaniak in the 100; the same duo in the 220; Bob Fredericks and Ron Haass, 440; Larry Wright in the 880; Larry Russell, mile; Haass and Stepaniak, broad jump; "Rocky" Jersild, Jim Hanson and Jim Funk, hurdles; Han- son and Jersild, high jump, 13, Broadway 251-161 and Dan Endter, Charlie Web- er and Dave Emerich, weights.

college education. Having an extension center nearby also helps the parents financially since the student can live at home and often is able to work parttime while going to school.

The university has not had sufficient funds to build these centers and the legislature has cut its budgets, the mayor mentioned in reply to a question about possible university finances for such a building. One supervisor wondered if the Wisconsin Alumni Research foundation could help finance an extension center since it has funds.

A motion to refer the request to the county agriculture and education committee for study was objected to by Supv. Herbert Pitz, Oshkosh, because that committee dealt mainly with rural school matters and this should be a special committee to meet with other groups.

Supv. Van Jackson, O m r o, said the problem was a larger one than the agriculture and education committee of which he is chairman could handle and he thought it would be good to add to the committee for this study. Chairman Joseph Drexler thought it could be mainly fact finding at first and then a special committee could be set up after a report is received.

Amends Motion

Supv. Heiss amended the motion to provide a supervisor each from Neenah, Menasha and Oshkosh be added for the study and this passed 35 to 10.

Among those voting against the amendment for the enlarged committee were Supvs. Oliver Jacobsen, town of Menasha, Alvin Staffeld, Neenah and Drexler.

Drexler named Heiss, Redlin and Wallace as the county board members to meet with the agriculture and education committee. City Manager Hans S. Thorgrunsen of Oshkosh also appeared before the board Wednesday afternoon regarding the use of surplus funds for relief clients and county welfare patients. His suggestion was referred to the welfare board for study.

Referred to the highway committee was a request from 250 persons to improve the boat launching place on County Trunk MM where it meets Lake Poygan at Richter's resort. The resort owner will give 35 feet and the rest of the land there is county highway, Supv. Franklin Neuschafer, town of Wolf River, explained.

Town Officials Act to Stop Numerous Grass Fire Calls

Neenah — Because of repeated grass fires in rural areas, one of which Wednesday led to the destruction of a house trailer, two townships acted today.

Town of Vinland board has declared a 30-day ban on all fires in that township or until such time as the board relinquishes the ban.

Warren Miracle, town of Vinland chairman, today said the dry season has resulted in a large number of fire calls when grass and weeds being burned off get out of hand and spread to adjoining areas.

Fire Chief John Huebner of the joint department of the towns of Neenah and Menasha asked cooperation of all residents in those two towns to confine their burning of rubbish or grass to the evening hours and to have equipment on hand to stop any spreading fire.

Spread to Trailer Firemen were fighting a grass fire south of Highway 114 in the town of Neenah, just west of Highway 41, Wednesday when the fire spread over a wide area and set fire to a house trailer owned by one of the construction workers on the Highway 41 relocation project.

The firemen were in another section, a quarter of a mile away, and did not see the fire spread to the house trailer until too late.

If the number of fire calls continue at the rate they have been, then a fire ban may have to be proclaimed, Chief Huebner indicated.

Mrs. Gaertner to Head Community Council

Organizations Report on Progress
At Final Session of Current Term

Menasha — Mrs. M. P. Gaertner has been elected president of the Neenah — Menasha Community Council, outgoing president William Herziger announced Tuesday.

Other officers for the coming year, announced at the final session of the current year, are Mrs. Hayward Biggers, first vice president; Mrs. W. B. Bellack, second vice president; Mrs. George Hrubecy, secretary, and Armin Schroeder, treasurer.

Directors elected for a three-year term are Al Starck, Eugene Gillis and Jack Casper. Holdover directors are Paul Dodge, Mrs. Ruth Falvey and Dr. J. P. Canavan, each with two years left, and Marvin Melick, Miss Grace McLeay and the Rev. Arthur Tingley, each with a year left on the board.

Representatives of various organizations operating under Community Council auspices gave a brief report on their work for the year.

Golden Age Clubs
Bill Miller, Neenah recreation director, noted that the Neenah and Menasha Golden Age clubs are now eight and seven years old, are continuing to grow and are still looking for more service projects.

Both clubs are sending representatives to Sheboygan next week to help make arrangements for the state-wide Golden Age party in the summer.

Miss Carol Quella of the Hopeful Future club noted that it will be six years old next ten and published "A History of Aviation Medicine for the Air Force."

Succeeds Banks
Major Williams succeeds Lt. Col. Charles Banks, 248 Washington avenue, Neenah. Col. Banks, who is employed by Kimberly-Clark corporation as an engineer, received an inactive, non-affiliated reserve assignment upon approaching the air force's 20-year service retirement level.

In addition to his duties as flight commander, Major Williams will double as the flight's training officer. He recently was awarded the armed forces reserve medal.

Major Sholund's previous assignment was adjutant. Lt. Col. Sidney Richman, commander of the 9661st squadron, Oshkosh, made the appointment announcements through his information services officer, Capt. W. D. Oliver of Menasha.

week. She said that the club has been making bandages for the Visiting Nurse association and that the group derives great satisfaction from belonging to the state recreation club for handicapped persons.

Mrs. Hayward Biggers of the Christmas Giving club related the growth of her organization and said that all underprivileged families recommended by the confidential exchange receive a full holiday dinner and numerous new and reconditioned toys and articles of clothing.

Youth Work
Miller and Jerry Smith, recreation directors of the Twin Cities, cited the youth work being done in the area. Miller discussed the Teen Talks, meetings of student boards of Neenah and Menasha High schools, and the dances conducted for youngsters of both cities.

"These meetings give the youngsters an opportunity to let their wishes be known," Miller said, "and also give us a chance to explain why certain of their wishes cannot be fulfilled."

Dave Hess, a Menasha High school student, told of the Blue Inn, a recreation room at the Memorial building for MHS and St. Mary High students. He said that two pool tables, a bumper pool table and a tape recorder had been purchased with the proceeds of the Blue Inn.

Smith reminded members of the family fair, planned for May 4 and 5 at the Boys' Brigade building. The program is to be a "home show" of recreation ideas for families.

Dental Clinics
Miss Dorothy Keune noted that the Twin City dental clinics are now being operated by the Neenah — Menasha Family service after being subsidized by the city governments. The clinics are for borderline and indigent cases.

Mrs. W. B. Bellack reported that the Winnebago County Guidance Clinic is now incorporated under state law and that part of the funds collected by the Mental Health association will be used to help start such a clinic.

The directory of social agencies will be ready for distribution by summer, Marvin Melick chairman of that project, said.

The new president noted that several other organizations also were part of the Community Council but were not represented at the meeting.

Grange to Vote on By-Laws Change At Meeting Friday

Allenville — Proposed change in the Grange by-laws was presented at the Allenville Grange meeting last Friday night and will be voted at the regular Grange meeting at 8:30 Friday night.

Ritual work was conducted by Henry Malchow. A lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Mueller.

The Allenville Juveniles will receive applications for new members Friday night. At its last meeting Ellen Rae Foth read the story of "The Happy Prince."

Harry Testin of the Crystal Lake Grange at Waupaca, a state grange deputy, will inspect the Allenville Grange Friday.

Nine tables of cards were in play at the Grange public card party Monday night. Prize winners were Chauncey Davey, Ernest Stahl, Catherine Krall, Laura Lee, Eunice Wagner and Mrs. Davey. Mrs. Lucy Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Seager were in charge of the party. The next party will be May 5.

Mackinac Bridge Project Outlined to Traffic Club

Menasha — The construction "miracle" of the Mackinac Straits bridge, longest suspension bridge in the world, was outlined to the Fox River Valley Traffic club members at a dinner meeting Tuesday night at the Elks club here by Herman D. Ellis, public information executive for the Mackinac Bridge authority.

He also showed colored slides he took of the bridge in various stages of construction. Work on the $99,800,000 bridge began in 1954 with an opening date set for Nov. 1, 1957. Strangely, he said, the bridge was completed by that time and for exactly the estimated cost.

Financing of the bridge is from revenue bonds and the state of Michigan provides only $470,000 a year to take care of the necessary operating and maintenance expenses. No tax money is used for the bridge construction, he pointed out.

The bridge is expected to be paid for in 18 to 25 years. The toll for crossing on the bridge is $3.25 per car up to $8 per bus.

Ellis pointed out the towers rise above water equal to the height of a 46-story building, or 552 feet, and go down below the water level 200 feet to bedrock. The concrete caissons below the towers, which support the bridge, are 116 feet in diameter.

The bridge itself is five miles long, including its approaches and causeways and the portion suspended between the two towers is 3,800 feet long, second only to the Golden Gate bridge which is 4,200 feet between towers.

All of the bridge portion was built in deep water, about the only bridge so built. The caissons were floated 100 miles from their assembly point to the site and then sunk to the 200 feet depth.

The steel framework for the bridge was built as it extended itself out from land rather than being assembled first in sections and transported to the site. The bridge is the largest continuous steel construction over water in the world, the speaker cited.

Stiffening trusses, weighing over 50 tons, were lowered in

Fined $120, Costs 2 in Municipal Court on 2 Overload Violations

Oshkosh — Carl Porath, 226 Lorraine avenue, Neenah, was fined $120 and costs by Judge S. J. Luchsing in municipal court Wednesday on two overload violations. He was arrested by state traffic police.

Porath was fined $105 and costs for axle overload and $15 and costs for a license overload.

In another state traffic case, place from the tall towers by an operator hundreds of feet away and receiving his information by telephone.

Width of the bridge is 54 feet, providing four lanes, a divider strip and a crosswalk on each side of the roadway. The outer lanes are blacktopped and the inner lane is a steel mesh on the suspension part. It is the only bridge with perfect aerodynamic stability, the speaker declared.

During the construction period only five persons lost their lives, which, he said, is outstanding for safety in a construction as difficult as that.

The bridge is patrolled constantly to help anyone with car trouble or a flat tire, Ellis explained.

Dale J. Schindler, 19, route 1, Neenah, was fined $50 and costs and his license was revoked for a year on a restricted license violation. He was arrested at Highways 41 and G in the town of Neenah on March 29.

Twin City Wheel To Make Plans For '58 Season

Industrial Loop
Schedules Initial Softball Meeting

Neenah — Organization plans for the 1958 season will be discussed by the Twin City Industrial Loop at a meeting at 7 o'clock tonight at the Bergstrom meeting room.

The league, which began play in 1951, has been growing each year and last year the roster was upped to 15 teams with the entry of Wisconsin Tissue Mills.

Entries included Bergstrom's Main Office, Lakeview, Foundry, Banta's, Marathon Packers, Gilbert Paper and Marathon Ramblers in the National division and Menasha Wood- en Ware, Wisconsin Tissue Mills, Hardwood Products, Northwestern Electric type, Strange Paper, Badger - Globe, and Neenah Paper in the American section. Items on the agenda tonight include election of officers, probable discussion of realignment of teams into the divisions and reviewing the by-laws.

Last year the loop came up with a big rule change in that it permitted the so-called AAA caliber pitchers to hurl in the circuit.

In addition to regular league play, the circuit has sponsored a tournament for industrial teams in the area and has a midseason all-star game between top players in the two divisions.

Work on the New Riverside Park Boat dock will be completed this week. Here two workmen, Howard Evans and Marv Willenkamp, smooth out the new concrete landing which is replacing the old wooden piers. One lone boat is moored to the dock in this picture, but the new wharf probably will be a beehive of activity before many weeks pass. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Industrial Safety Council Fetes 'Bosses' at Dinner

Menasha — Impatience, in- passive, impersonal, impover- ish and impotence were cited by Dr. Charles E. Irvin, consultant in management development and communication, as the "Five Imps of Safety Communication" in his talk to the 235 attending the annual Bosses night dinner of the Twin City Safety council at Germania hall Wednesday night.

The trouble with many safety programs and safety messages is that they do not get through to the person for whom they are intended. Of the 193 million man-hours lost last year, 98 per cent was in plants with safety programs, he cited.

"Sometimes we don't even effect our own habits as well as not getting through to the other person. Safety must be a crusade to change the patterns and attitudes of people to make them safety conscious whether there are rules, equipment, a program or not."

Dr. Irvin gave as his remedy for those five factors that cause a safety program to fail the word "safety" itself by making each letter in the word stand for something.

The "S" is for selecting your message more carefully and aiming it a variety of people by presenting it in different ways. Carelessness, complacency, curiosity and conceit are the four "Cs" that cause accidents, he cited.

"A" means to activate the message by not using passive words. "Put reality into your message, put in the cause and effect and call a spade a spade," he stressed.

"F" means to fashion your language to fit the people, to make statistics live. The loss of 193 million man-hours a year will mean more if interpreted in how many thousands of schools it could build, he mentioned.

"The letter 'E' stands for energizing your program, putting enthusiasm into it."

"I" is to make the safety program tangible, to make it live. Recognize the safe fellow, not just the one who has an accident," he advised the group.

"The letter 'Y' means to put you into it through your example. You have to be Mr. Safety to get your message over," he emphasized.

Of Neenah Woman

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau

Oshkosh — The estates of two Twin City persons were ordered distributed to the heirs. 1957, leaving a net estate of $36,000 Neenah estate.

The petition filed was for administration of the estate of the late Catherine Probst of Neenah who died April 5 leaving $21,000 in personal property and $45,000 in real estate.

Listed as her heirs were five children, Edward of Appleton, Ann Frances Probst of Gary, Ind., Robert and Joseph of Neenah and James of Neenah.

The estate of the late Reginald Sanders, Neenah, who died Dec. 24, 1956, was ordered assigned to his widow. The net value of the estate was placed at $30,550.

Mayme Conley Estate

The other estate assigned was that of Mayme S. Conley of Neenah, who died Aug. 16, 1957, leaving a net estate of $19,022. Shares to be received by County Judge Herbert J. Mueller who also received a petition for administration of a ger, Menasha, a friend, and $3,355 each by Pearl Hartman of Grange, Ill., and Annamie Monty of Clintonville, all nieces.

The county judge also admitted to probate the will of the late Gustav H. Schueler of Menasha who died April 8. He left half of his estate to his daughter, Millie Scholl, Menasha, and one-fourth each to a daughter, Leona Thomas, Hilbert, and a son, Harold Schueler, Hutchinson, Minn. His estate was estimated at $10,000 in personal property.

4-H, FFA Members Receive Tree Planting Instruction

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau

Oshkosh — Approximately 5,000 trees will be ordered by 4-H and FFA members for planting in the spring and many of those members attended a meeting at the courthouse lounge room last week along with adults, all planning to plant trees. The trees are being secured from the state conservation department.

Ted Peterson, extension forester, gave suggestions on how to get the planting started. When the bundle comes it should be kept in a cool place. The bundle should be opened immediately and the root system watered as the roots may dry out somewhat in shipment. The forester stressed immediate planting but if it is not possible to plant within two days, a trench should be dug in a garden and the trees laid in this trench. The dirt should be tamped down and then watered. The trees will keep several days this way without injury, Peterson said.

He also emphasized the need to keep the trees in water while the planting operation is in process because a few minutes of exposure to the sun may kill the small roots and the person unknowingly would be planting a dead tree.

Many persons plant trees by hand and in this case it is important that the top three inches of the sod be scalped or broken away into a circle of about 18 inches. The tree then should be placed in fresh soil. This eliminates grass and weed competition for a year or two, he mentioned.

Trees also should be planted at the same depth as in a nursery and it is important to plant them straight and to get the roots spread in the newly dug hole rather than in a bunch. Newly planted trees should be tamped well with the heel or some other way to eliminate air pockets. Usually it is not necessary to water if planted shortly after coming from the nursery in early spring.

Those who plant thousands of trees usually do machine planting. Peterson continued. A person can do about a thousand plantings in an hour while machine would do about 700 to 800 in a day.

As for woodlot planting, Peterson said we should not minimize mother nature's job because she plants many more than we can manually. We should help her develop forest plantations and should keep cattle out of woodlots, prevent fires and follow good selective cutting methods, he told the 4-H and FFA members.

Area Survival Meeting Planned by Chambers

Three to Visit Civil Defense Headquarters

Neenah — Chamber of commerce leaders from five Fox river valley cities agreed Wednesday night to cooperate in sponsoring an area industrial survival conference. The conference probably will be held in the fall.

Leaders of the Green Bay, Kaukauna, Appleton, Neenah-Menasha and Oshkosh chambers agreed to appoint three representatives from each organization to go to national civil defense headquarters at Battle Creek, Mich., sometime in May to be briefed on national, state and local civil defense.

These men will plan the industrial survival conference. Leonard E. Pasek, Appleton, assistant to the president of the Kimberly-Clark corporation, was named temporary chairman of the group and John Conrad, secretary of the Neenah-Menasha chamber, temporary secretary.

Family Protection
Frank Jenkins, Appleton, told the group that present civil defense plans provide only for the operations of government in a war or other emergency. "The government cannot, and will not, protect you and your family in a nuclear war situation," he emphasized. "Nor can it protect your business. That you must do for yourself. And believe me, if you are not prepared to do it, you will be lucky if you are killed in the first hour," he added.

The group agreed with Jenkins that the phrase civil defense is somewhat meaningless, and that survival is a better word to describe the problem facing the country. "The only defending that's going to be done will be by the armed forces," Jenkins said. "And the top people in the Pentagon admit they will never be able to stop all the planes the enemy might throw at us," he declared.

The meeting, held at Kimberly-Clark's general offices, also was attended by Robert Beltrone, Appleton's civil defense coordinator, George F. Oaks, Winnebago county coordinator, and Michael Gerharz, Kaukauna coordinator.

West Germany Tests First Postwar Jet

Augsburg — Germany's famed World War II airplane manufacturers — Messerschmitt and Heinkel — have assembled and flown West Germany's first postwar jet plane. Messerschmitt officials said Wednesday the plane was secretly test flown shortly before Easter. It is the French-designed Fouga Magister 170 CMR, a two-engine jet trainer being built for the new German Luftwaffe.

"The test pilot was very enthusiastic about its performance," a top Messerschmitt official said.

The plane is one of the standard jet trainers selected for use by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. West Germany is a member. All the plane's parts, including the engine, came from France. Messerschmitt officials said that by November, all equipment and parts going into the plane will be German made, except the engines.

Veterinary Unit Forms Auxiliary

Mrs. L. J. Swanson, Bonduel, was elected president of a newly-formed Northeast Wisconsin Veterinary association auxiliary.

The group was organized at an association meeting in Appleton Wednesday.

Other officers are Mrs. William Madson, Appleton, secretary, Mrs. C. J. Heagle, Gresham, treasurer, and Mrs. Quentin Metzger, Oshkosh, publicity chairman. Twelve members attended the organizational meeting. The auxiliary expects to have 50 members. They will assist in preparations for a state convention in Wausau in July.

Last-Minute Sweat on Tax Goes Up in Smoke

Carlsbad, N. M. — A lot of last-minute sweat went up in smoke Tuesday night. Someone set a mail box afire. Postmaster Horace Hubert said most of the contents could not be identified, but there was evidence of many income tax returns mailed just before the midnight deadline.

Seek Changes In Surface of Seven Streets

The city council Wednesday night approved changes in the type of surfaces which will be placed this year on seven city streets.

All of the changes replace previously ordered turnover and double sealcoat with 11-inch asphalt mats. The streets where the asphalt will be laid: S. Durkee street from E. Lawrence street south to the end of the street. N. Viola street from E. Lindbergh street to E. Frances street. E. Melrose avenue from N.

Itacine street to N. McDonald street. E. Woodland avenue from N. Graceland avenue to N. McDonald street. N. Rankin street from E. Marquette street to E. Byrd street. S. Walden avenue from E. John street to E. Fremont street. E. Woodland from N. McDonald to N. Kenilworth avenue. In addition, the council voted to grade N. Racine street and N. McDonald street, both from E. Glendale to E. Melrose, for an asphalt mat this year when the curb and gutter is installed. The asphalt will be laid next year. Grading, graveling, curb, gutter and an asphalt mat was voted for N. Viola street from E. Frances street to E.

Glendale avenue. Self-cleaning open-back catch basins, as requested by Ald. Roy Pointer, will be installed at N. Viola and E. Frances as part of the project. Plans and specifications for surfacing the alley south of W. College avenue between S. Superior street and S. Walnut street were ordered.

Held Over This Week-End
Due to Unprecedented Response
Gibson's Gigantic "Open-Air"
Showing and Sale Of Brand New
1958 Chevrolets
On Our New, Well-Lighted, "Open-Air" Lot Located at the Corner of 9th and Racine St., Menasha

Surprised??? You bet we were!

We anticipated and hoped that our OUTDOOR SHOWING of over 50 brand new cars this week-end would attract a large number of people, but we hardly expected the overwhelming, enthusiastic response such as took place throughout this exciting 2-day event.

In spite of the fact that we had our combined Appleton-Neenah-Menasha sales staff on hand to serve you . . . at times we were simply unable to wait on more than 10 per cent of the throngs of the new car shoppers who stormed on to our lot. For this, we are truly sorry and offer our sincere apology!

In an effort to give everyone another chance to see this amazingly special new car outdoor display and get in on the amazing new car bargains . . . we are extending this sale and invite you to return and give us another chance to serve you!

While prices are much too low to advertise, each car is clearly marked with price tags right on the windshields with REDUCTIONS so drastic you won't believe your own eyes. Generous unmatched trade-in-allowances and low cost bank or GMAC financing is featured.

5 Persons Killed in California Collision

Victorville, Calif. — A Milwaukee couple and three other persons died Tuesday in a head-on crash on U. S. 66 north of Victorville.

Henry C. Lepp, 55, of Milwaukee was the driver of one car. Killed with him were his wife, Esther, 52, and Mrs. Ella A. Sanders, 63, Minneapolis.

Killed in the other auto were Frank J. Kotnour, 70, and his wife Ida, of Huntington Park, Calif.

Jayne Mansfield Can Take Daughter Abroad

Los Angeles — Jayne Mansfield has superior court permission to take her 8-year-old daughter to England next Tuesday.

Her former husband, Paul Mansfield, had opposed the trip for little Jayne Marie. Mansfield now remarried and working as a public relations man in Chattanooga, Tenn., was not present at yesterday's hearing.

The actress assured the court that her daughter would keep up with her studies while Miss Mansfield is making a picture in England.

Chairman of Calumet Board Elected Again

Takes Up Duties
For Fourth Term

Chilton — Louis H. Huibregtse, Brillion, a member of the Calumet county board of supervisors for the past 15 years, was reelected to his fourth term as board chairman Tuesday.

Oscar Kossman, Chilton town, who is serving his 14th year with the supervisors, was reelected to his fourth successive term as vice chairman.

During the morning session, a resolution was passed allowing the state highway commission to use funds totaling $102,000 credited to Calumet county for the improvement of Highway 55 from Horseshoe hill to the Fond du Lac county line.

Henry Steiner, Charlestown, chairman of the highway committee, explained that if the board voted down state use of these funds, 55 would not be repaired nor would the county receive the money. Calumet receives $55,000 each fiscal year for highway construction, repair and maintenance.

Rezoning Petition
Petitions on the rezoning of agricultural land in the town of Harrison for commercial use were read.

The vote on the amendment to the ordinance on the reclassification of the property was laid over until the June session. George A. Schwalbach, Harrison, objected to the vote on the amendment on the basis that all the land included in the petition need not be included in the reclassification. Without unanimous consent the matter could not be acted upon until the next session.

As proposed in the petition, the area to be reclassified would include all real estate north of Highways 10 and 114 in the town of Harrison lying east of the Calumet and Winnebago county lines a distance of 400 feet north to the Appleton city limits.

F. J. Flanagan, county superintendent of schools, appeared to request additional class room and instruction facilities for mentally retarded children. The program has been carried on in the county for several years.

Room Rented
State recommendations are that students classed as educable, need a whole day of school. Trainable children are capable of only two hours of concentration, Flanagan said. These should have separate half day classes.

Flanagan reported he had contacted the Chilton city council and had obtained a room at the city hall for a $25 monthly rental.

Supervisors approved the committee request to obtain the room and hire a teacher for the lower I. Q. group which would meet half days in the city hall. The educable children will continue with full day sessions at the public school. Complete cost of the additional program was estimated at $3,200. The state will share in the cost. Last year's state reimbursement amounted to 80.05 per cent of the total, Flanagan said.

Numbering System
A rural numbering system was discussed. Clerk Roland Miller was instructed to request a member of the rural planning board to appear at the June session to outline the program. Chief reason for consideration of the rural numbering program is its aid to fire departments in answering calls.

Action in regard to a proposed bounty on foxes and other animals was laid over. The county will discontinue payment of bounty on animals, in accordance with new state legislation, until a new resolution is passed.

Yellow rocket and bull thistle were added to the noxious weed list for the county.

Beltrone Cites Need for Civil Defense Program

Civil defense protects a community in case of nuclear attack or natural disaster. Robert Beltrone, Appleton CD director, told the Appleton Kiwanis club Wednesday noon.

Business firms should take an active part in the civil defense program. Coordinators with sufficient authority to set up a workable program, ready to roll at a minute's notice, are necessary for a good business approach to civil defense, he said.

Beltrone reviewed need for civil defense in face of the threat of communist attack. He said Appleton, though not listed as a primary target area, has been designated a reception area for Green Bay and Milwaukee citizens should their cities undergo nuclear bombing.

Progress on national, state and local levels was cited by the director as showing a growing awareness of civil defense needs.

City officials attending the meeting were Mayor Clarence Mitchell, Chief of Police Walter Hendricks, Fire Chief Paul Neumann and Atty. Don Jury.

$400,000 Bond Set for County Bridge Share

Board Decides to Use
Funds on Hand to Cut
Amount Borrowed

Outagamie county will sell $400,000 in bonds for its share of the $1,800,000 E. John street high level bridge, the county board decided Wednesday.

The county will take $115,000 left over from a bond issue for the New London Golden Age home and $85,000 from its $300,000 contingency fund to make up its $600,000 share of the bridge.

Board Chairman Alvin Fulcer

told the board the bonding resolution would have to be voted at the board's May session, since the state has indicated the money will be needed about the middle of June. No firm date for beginning of construction has been set.

Tentative plans call for bond bids June 9 or 10 so the county board can accept a bid at its June 10 meeting.

Fulcer first suggested the county bond for $500,000, using the $115,000 from the New London home to cut down the bond issue from $600,000.

Use County Funds

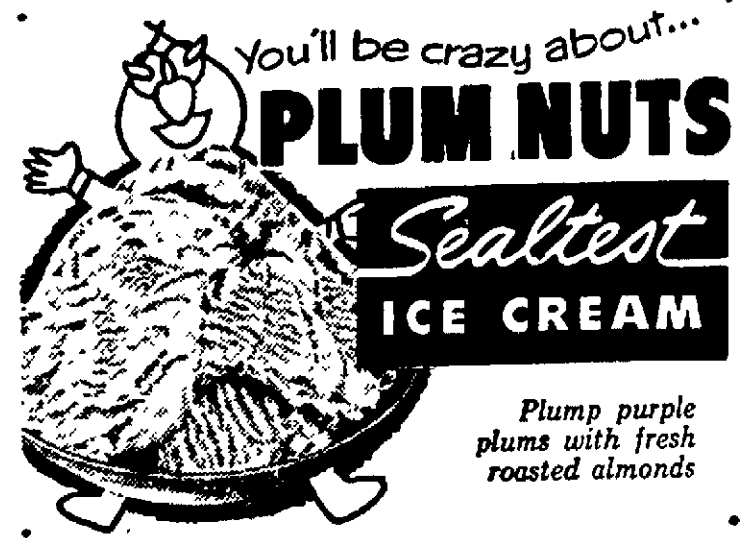

Freedom Supv. Joseph Weyers suggested the $400,000 figure, commenting, "It would be better if we used our own money instead of paying interest."

Fulcer commented the county's contingency fund totaled about $300,000, the insurance fund $200,000 and there should be about $200,000 left from the $2.2 million county hospital bond issue after completion of the buildings.

However, Fulcer added, the supervisors should keep in mind the county's plans for the county airport (estimated county share of improvements is $85,800) and a request for $25,000 to support a child guidance clinic.

Total county bonds issued in total $3,125,000, for under the legal limit of nearly $20 million.

Scientists Do Not Agree on Possible Hereditary Harm

BY ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

New York—(AP)—Fallout is presumably dooming some of tomorrow's children to disease or death.

But then so are radium-dial wrist watches that glow in the dark.

In fact, X-rays from the watch could be many times more dangerous to your descendants than fallout.

Fallout frightens and causes moral concern primarily because of the hereditary damage it is, will, or might be causing.

Scientists disagree on the extent of this risk because so little is known directly about the effects of radiation on human heredity.

They have to guess from studies of fruit flies, plants and small animals, which don't take 20 years to produce one generation.

One expert guess is that natural radioactivity is causing about 10 per cent of all changes in human genes, the carriers of hereditary traits.

Most—but not all—geneticists think any dose of radiation, however small, adds to this risk of genetic damage, especially if it is continued long enough.

So therefore fallout would be producing some genetic damage.

Some scientists say the addition is practically imperceptible. Others say that, in time, fallout means hundreds of thousands of infants will be lost in miscarriages, or be doomed to sickly, feeble, or shortened lives.

Proof Lacking

No one can prove he is right. Continuing and intensified studies of radiation will produce the facts.

Atomic energy commission experts say the added risk of genetic damage from fallout is not as great as the added risk of moving from a wood house to a brick or stone house.

Reason: The brick or stone house exposes you to increased natural radioactivity, an increase greater than average exposure from fallout.

One AEC scientist calculates the average radium-dial wrist watch exposes the wearer's sex glands to about twice the radiation he gets from natural sources.

Other scientists think the AEC is estimating the effects of fallout far too low. And they say fallout is not evenly distributed, so some persons are getting a heavier dose than average.

Some also argue that radioactive Strontium-90, which accumulates in bones, will cause thousands of cases of leukemia and bone cancer.

AEC spokesmen say there's no proof for this. They report the amount of strontium found in children's bones so far is about one one-hundredth the amount considered a very safe dose.

Many argue a moral issue.

At the heart of the fallout argument is the wish, shared by all, that there never be a nuclear war.

Bans on tests, and weapon production, may be worked out.

Meanwhile, what's the chance that your next baby—or your grandchild—will be harmed by fallout radiation?

It is infinitesimal in any individual case, say the geneticists.

The genetic harm coming from fallout—if it is coming and in whatever degree—won't really show up until future generations.

It may always be too small to be noticed or pinpointed. But it may be there.

Patrol Officer Asks Uniformity

Says Standard Laws Would Aid Cause Of Traffic Safety

Uniform traffic laws, enforcement and penalties for the same types of offenses would help promote highway safety. Col. Lawrence E. Beier, head of the state traffic patrol asserted during a meeting of the Outagamie County Teenage council. About 70 young people attended.

A traffic violation in Maine may not be considered a violation in 10 other states, Beier stated, but discrepancies in traffic regulations are most noticeable in cases of long haul inter-state trucking. Various lighting systems are required on trucks and requirements in one state may be more or less stringent than in another, he explained.

Beier also said "group and public support of law enforcement, backing the courts in every way and backing the efforts of enforcement officers will create the kind of respect for the law that will help promote highway safety."

Also on the program were Dr. William Gibson who outlined the visual screening test to be conducted in Outagamie and Winnebago counties April 28 to May 2 and Harvey Gygi, New London, who showed safety movies.

A nominating committee composed of Jane Collier, New London, Paul Vanevenhoven, Kimberly, and Sue Andrews, Shiocton, was appointed.

PSC Milwaukee Water Ruling Doesn't Affect Other Cities

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — The public service commission did not set a precedent that will apply to other Wisconsin cities when it ruled recently that the city of Milwaukee municipal water utility must supply the water service requirements of the city of Wauwatosa, authorities have explained here.

The Milwaukee - Wauwatosa case attracted wide attention, in part because of the angry resistance of the city of Milwaukee administration to the state regulatory commission's rule.

But a reading of the PSC decision makes it clear that the case was resolved on the history and practices of the Milwaukee utility in holding itself out for service to neighboring municipalities, and special statutes governing the Milwaukee situation dating back many years.

The state ruled in effect that since the city of Milwaukee in the past has been ready and willing to provide water drawn from Lake Michigan to other adjacent municipal water utilities, it must continue to do so, as a public utility.

Each on Merits

The effect of the rule is that the municipal utility, as it holds itself out to perform utility service, has the same legal position of responsibility as has the private public service corporation.

"The obligation of a municipal water utility to furnish water to other adjacent municipal utilities for resale is one which is not inherent in the public utility status, but is one which may be assumed by reason of legislative authority and the voluntary acts of the utility," the commission carefully explained.

Thus the widely heralded Milwaukee - Wauwatosa dispute and the decision against Milwaukee does not apply to other cities, except as they may also have held themselves out for service in the past on a voluntary basis.

In such event, a commission spokesman explained, any other case would be resolved on its own record and on its own merits, and not necessarily as a consequence of the Milwaukee order.

Seniors Hear Of AVS Program

2-Year Course Explained for AHS Graduates

Faculty members from Appleton Vocational school spoke to seniors at Appleton High school recently explaining opportunities offered high school graduates in their 2-year program.

Joe E. Gunderson, coordinator, and Elmer E. Miller spoke on the commercial and business program. Milton J. Ness, guidance counselor, and E. H. Funk, coordinator, told about the trades and industry program.

Seniors and their parents were invited to a special open house Monday so students will have a further opportunity to learn about the physical facilities of the school and its programs.

This week and next week members of the armed services will speak to the seniors about the programs offered by the military.

Seek Meeting To Settle Truck Tax Question

State MVD Officials Say Illinois Is Breaking Agreement

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — State motor vehicle department officials have asked their counterparts in Illinois for a conference next week to arrange a truce in a battle about the long-standing truck tax reciprocity compact of the two states.

As the state motor vehicle department sees it, and has declared in public statements, the Illinois government is in effect breaking off the compact through its insistence that Wisconsin motor truck operators register a part of their fleets in Illinois — and pay taxes on them — in order to move over Illinois roads.

Under an existing agreement that dates back many years, the states have permitted the legally registered truckers of the other to move into their jurisdictions without a second payment of registration fees.

Several Wisconsin truckers have been denied free operating rights in Illinois, in defiance of the existing agreement.

Meanwhile Wisconsin continues to grant free operating rights on Wisconsin highways to more than 8,000 Illinois vehicles, under the existing agreement, officials say.

Dan Schuetz, head of the motor vehicle registration division of the state government, said his agency has asked for a showdown conference with the Illinois authorities in Chicago next week.

If Illinois wants a new agreement, he said, this state is prepared to negotiate one, even if it involves requirements for proportional registrations in Illinois and Wisconsin of the truck operators of each state. But such a requirement is in direct violation of the terms of the agreement now in effect, he said.

Prefers Present Plan

The state agency, meanwhile has made it clear that it prefers a continued application of the original reciprocity concept.

Said Wisconsin Motor Vehicle Commissioner Melvin Larson in a protest to Illinois Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter:

"It is unnecessary for me to point out to you the consequences of your terminating motor vehicle reciprocity between our states and forcing dual registration of thousands of vehicles.

"In addition to the tremendous additional cost which you would impose upon the carriers, such a sudden termination of reciprocity would seriously disrupt motor vehicle transportation upon which the business and agriculture of both states depend. The consequences to the flow of perishable goods are even more serious."

Piles Have Been Driven for a culvert to carry the southbound lanes of Highway 41 over a small drainage ditch just north of the 41-Winnebago County Trunk PP intersection. The crossing is one of the smaller construction jobs along the 4-laning of 41 between Neenah and Highway 10 west of Appleton. The work includes eight traffic viaducts and exchanges in Winnebago county in the Neenah area and one at County Trunk BB, plus the diamond-type exchange at Highway 10. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Russians Will Score Heavily if U. S. Is Forced Into Summit Talk

BY WALTER LIPPMANN

This week there will be preparatory talks dealing with the question of how to get ready to prepare for a meeting.

face to face at the summit, between President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Khrushchev.

Both sides know that there is no

Lippmann prospect whatever of any substantial agreement at such a meeting. And yet, as the cards have been dealt, the Soviet Union will score heavily if we can be induced by the pressure of public opinion to agree to hold a meeting. This means that somehow or other we have been outmaneuvered and are being pushed into doing what we do not want to do.

With hindsight I think it is now fairly plain why and where we made the mistake when a few months ago the Russians first proposed a meeting at the summit. There were two alternative ways of reacting to their proposal. One was to take it lightly and the other was to take it very seriously. To take it lightly would have been to say that we were ready for exploratory talks without prospect or pretense that a good settlement could or would come out of these talks. They would be talks which might, at the most, result in agreements to instruct the foreign ministers to explore certain questions.

On the other hand, to take the Soviet proposal of a summit meeting seriously was to take the line we did take. It was to say that Eisenhower cannot talk with Khrushchev until Dulles has negotiated with Gromyko something important which Eisenhower and Khrushchev can then agree upon.

This serious reaction has proved to be a false move. The basic fact is that on neither side is there at present any willingness to concede anything substantial. Our tactic has made it necessary for Dulles to be the opposition to a summit meeting. Yet much of the world is thinking wishfully that the president, once he got into a personal meeting, would prove to be flexible and conciliatory.

The Russians, who in all matters of substance are as unyielding as Dulles, are making the most of the notion that with Eisenhower personally, something might be done to relax the tensions of the world. The fact is that something might be done, given Eisenhower's temperamental desire to agree with the man he is seeing. But that is one of the powerful though unavowed reasons for the American opposition to a summit conference.

Khrushchev has said that the summit agreements might be reached which could not be reached down below. A compelling reason for delaying or avoiding a meeting at the summit is to keep the negotiations down below — that is to say, in the hands of Secretary Dulles. For the prevailing official view in Washington is that no agreements can now be reached at the summit without making concessions that should not be made.

Too Late Now

Is it too late to alter our tactic, and to take what I have been calling the lighter view of the Soviet proposal? Why should it be too late? Is it because we have built up the impression that if there is a summit meeting at all, it will mean that Dulles has negotiated some sort of important agreement with the Soviet Union? There is such an impression.

The impression could be erased quickly enough if the president were to say that there has been enough note-writing and that he is prepared to go with Secretary Dulles to meet Khrushchev and Gromyko, say on board a ship and for not more than a long weekend. —He would like to discuss at this meeting the possibility of another and longer meeting later on.

I do not see what would be lost by such a move. Would Macmillan and Gaillard object? Surely they would know that nothing would be agreed to behind their backs. Would the move relax the tensions and cause the United States and the NATO allies, as it is commonly said, to "lower their guard?" If it did that, the only thing to say is that we are all such fools anyhow that we are not fit to survive.

'Copter Pilot Pays Fine for Carrying Boy Nailed in Box

Seoul, Korea — An American major who piloted a helicopter carrying a young Korean thief nailed in a box has been reprimanded and fined $200, a half month's pay.

Maj. Thomas G. James of Plymouth, Pa., got the maximum penalty under article 15 of the military code which he chose to accept rather than risk trial by a general court-martial. If convicted by the court, he could have gotten up to three years and nine months in prison, loss of all pay and allowances while imprisoned and dismissal from the army.

James already has been relieved of his post as commander of the aircraft maintenance center where 14-year-old Kim Choon Il was roughed up Feb. 25.

The army announced today that a court-martial had been scheduled April 18 for Master Sgt. Robert E. Weidensaul of Pottstown, Pa., also accused of mistreating the boy. A general court last week found Capt. Marvin E. Kemp of Kilmer, Miss., guilty of assaulting Kim. It fined him $1,200 and relieved him of command for six months.

The army said the trio caught Kim stealing, knocked him about and nailed him in a 3-foot box. James then flew him to another base 5 miles away, where some soldiers heard him whimpering and released him. He is now in a U.S.-supported orphanage.

Laundry Important Factor in Hospital

Facilities in New Building Able To Handle Everything but Drapes

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

One of the least publicized—but one of the important factors in a hospital—is laundry facilities.

Appleton Memorial hospital has a laundry that would put many commercial operations to shame—both for equipment and efficiency.

The laundry, on the first floor, handles every type of cloth goods needed in the hospital except some drapes, which have to be dry cleaned. The list includes sheets, doctors' and nurses' gowns, towels, washcloths, face masks, caps and nightclothes.

In charge of laundry operations is Daniel Welbes, who came to Memorial hospital from a similar post in Milwaukee county institution.

Full Control

In most hospitals, control of the laundry manager ends when clean laundry leaves the room and begins again when it comes back for washing. At Memorial hospital, Welbes also has control of distribution.

The laundry room itself is about 40 by 47 feet. It has a separate entrance and a storage room for soaps and other materials. It is adjacent to a storage and mending room and connected to it by a large window-counter.

Soiled laundry comes down a chute from the upper floors. When necessary, laundry from some hospital sections, is kept apart from other laundry. The materials are sorted according to soil content and type. Special soils, like blood, require special handling.

There are two stainless steel semi-automatic washers, one of 100-pound capacity and the other of 225-pound capacity. The type of washing is determined by a punched card fed into the control panel of the washer. The card sets the formula for the number of cycles, time, temperature required by the type of laundry. Temperature is controlled during the washing by injections of steam.

Can be Expanded

From the washers, the laundry goes to one of two extractors, where about half the water is removed through a whirling action. Articles to be ironed go to the 4-roll ironer, where they are completely dried in the ironing process. As they come off the ironer, they are folded and handed across the window-counter to the storage room. Laundry not to be ironed goes to the tumblers for drying and then is folded and taken to the storage room. The machinery in the laundry cost $27,500.

In the storage and mending room the laundered goods are checked for mending or repairs. From there they are distributed to storage areas in each section of the hospital.

The laundry, like many other features of the hospital, is built so it can be expanded easily if necessary. The wall on the east is an outside wall and can be moved out to make room for more machines.

Smorgasbord to Be Held Sunday By Elks Lodge

dance Sunday evening at the Elks clubrooms. A cocktail hour will be from 4:30 to 5:30. The dance is scheduled to get underway at 7 o'clock. Music for the affair will be furnished by a Kimberly orchestra. The menu will include turkey, ham and smorgasbord items. Tickets will be sold at the clubrooms and by Cy Klein, Howard Paschen, Lloyd Mereness, Ben Gillen, Paul Schommer, Lavern May, Robert Goetzman, Clarence Thelen and Arnold Hubers, Kimberly.

While these various functional disorders aren't caused by any deformity of the organ itself, they are very real to the patient.

Severity Varies

Now we'll go back to organic heart disease. It means something is physically changed in the heart—but you can't judge until you know how severe the individual case is. A "cut on the hand" can mean anything from a casual nick of a finger to a slash that almost severs it. That is true of organic heart disease, too.

A valve may have been damaged by rheumatic fever—but the degree of damage is what counts. Some people have such a mild case that they don't need to do anything except take pains not to impose too much strain on the heart. Others can have a severe case, with the valve badly damaged, and be invalids. Some of these people find that heart surgery can do wonders for them.

The heart may be somewhat enlarged, yet make no significant difference in their lives at all. Or there may be extreme enlargement, or some other defect, that require prolonged treatment.

So, you see, in spite of all I can tell you, you'll still have to find out from your brother how severe his trouble is, and what type it is. So let's just hope that his answer comes back explaining that he is one of those people with only moderate trouble that can be kept nicely under control. There are thousands and thousands like that.

Farmers Union Grades Votes of Legislators

Fox Cities Area Solons Agree With Views Only 18.5 Per Cent of Time

State senators and assemblymen from the Fox Cities area voted an average of 18.5 per cent in what it called "in the public interest," according to the legislative roll call released by the Wisconsin Farmers Union.

The area's two senators agreed an average of 25 per cent of the time with the Farmers Union, but the assemblymen agreed only 12 per cent of the time.

Richard Peterson, Clintonville assemblyman, and the late Fred Frank, Appleton, failed to agree on a single bill with the union. Peterson was absent 10 times, the most of all legislators, on roll call votes on bills considered key issues by the union.

port price resolution which the assembly passed and the marketing agreement bill.

Peters also agreed with the union in the first vote on the dairy support price resolution, the Hells Canyon high dam resolution and the increased truck weight measure. In the latter bill Peters and the union were in the minority.

Arnold Cane was in agreement with the union by voting against making a year's residency in the state a qualification for relief. The bill was passed.

Only 15 legislators, seven senators and eight assemblymen, all Democrats, voted 100 per cent with the union's idea of "in the public interest."

First Roll Call

The union concerned itself with 17 selected roll call votes in the assembly and 14 in the senate. The compilation, similar to that which is compiled for congress by the National Farmers Union, is the first one attempted by the state organization.

Arthur Hitt, Alma, a former 6-term assemblyman from Buffalo county, is the union's legislative representative and compiled the roll call.

The roll call is divided between farm and non-farm issues, Hitt reported.

All area assemblymen, with the exception of Frank and Peterson, agreed with the union on only one bill, the passage of the lobby control measure. The two senators both voted with the union on one issue; an attempt to recall from committee a bill prohibiting most closed meetings of governmental bodies.

Sen. Gerald Lorge, Bear Creek, voted with the union on the dairy support price resolution which the senate defeated, and the lobby control bill which was passed 28 to 2.

One of Two Again

Sen. William Draheim, Neenah, was one of the two senators who voted against the lobby control measure, but he voted with the union on the corrupt practices bill which would have caused the reporting of the full name and address of political contributors. The bill was defeated. He also voted with the union on the Metzner bill by objecting to the prohibition of buildings taller than 20 feet on Lake Mendota in Madison. The prohibition was passed.

Henry M. Peters, Calumet county, and William Sullivan, Kaukauna, agreed with the union on two bills; the dairy support price resolution and the lobby control bill.

ed in central supply. Each hospital patient has his own equipment.

Also a part of the central supply area is the hospital "still" room, where water is distilled by two machines for use in surgery, injections and laboratory work. Ointments and vaselines used for patient care are sterilized in dry heat ovens.

The hospital's unique communications system makes it possible to order requisitions from central supply for all parts of the building, with delivery in a minimum of time. Requisitions are received via drop-chute, phone and call systems from nurses stations on each floor and a dumb-waiter system direct from central supply expedites delivery of items ordered.

Central supply is open around the clock, with two trained employees manning the room during the day and one at night.

Plans Begun For County Swim Program

Registrations for the rural learn-to-swim program conducted each year by the Outagamie county Red Cross chapter will be distributed this week through county schools.

The free classes are offered during the swimming season at Erb park and Kaukauna pools. According to Miss Kathryn Osborn, Red Cross executive secretary, nearly 1,000 rural youngsters participated in the program last year.

Classes will be held from 9 o'clock to 10 o'clock each weekday morning and each child will attend two classes a week. Instructions will be offered in the beginners, intermediate swimmers and advanced categories.

Miss Osborn said if the demand is sufficient, a life saving class also will be scheduled.

New Hospital Equipment

Central Supply Area Has Two Auto-Claves

BY DONNA McDONNELL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

On the second floor of the new Appleton Memorial hospital building is a section known as "central supply." Here, practically all supplies necessary for efficient operation of the hospital and for most effective patient care are stored. Abundant storage cabinets hold linens, stainless steel patients' equipment and such articles. In addition, the section contains the latest in sterilization equipment to insure that all supplies requisitioned for care of a patient during his or her hospital stay are completely disinfected and free of germs.

Completely cyclomatic. Housed in a small brick room within the central supply area are two auto-claves, which are used for moist heat or steam sterilization of linens, syringes, needles, other hospital supplies and patient equipment (with the exception of instruments used for surgery and obstetrics, which are disinfected in separate sterilizers within those individual areas).

Completely cyclomatic, the auto-claves (the smaller with an 11,000 cubic inch capacity and the larger with a 15,000 cubic inch capacity) guarantee best possible sterilization, according to Mrs. Margaret Preston, director of nursing. There is no "cheating" on the sterilization cycle and thus, the risk of contamination, which may result if sterilizers are opened before the drying process is completed, is eliminated.

Both auto-claves are equipped with timing clocks and temperature graphs. These graphs are removed at the end of each 24-hour period and checked by Mrs. Preston to insure there is proper sterilization at all times. Manual operation of the machines also is possible if such a need should arise.

The enclosure in which the sterilizers are housed is permanently locked, except when maintenance may be necessary. Space for a third auto-clave has been allowed within the enclosure should hospital growth demand, the addition.

Rapid Delivery of Supplies. Special sterilization of individual patient equipment—thermometers, wash basins and bed basins—are handled.

The Sack Dress—Teenagers Hate It But Say They'll Go on Buying It

BY EUGENE GILBERT

The chemise, known in the vulgate as the sack dress, is strictly for sad sacks, as far as the nation's teenagers are concerned.

Fickle fashion's most controversial item since the new look of a decade ago has definitely struck out with the pony tail and blue denim set.

The boys, in particular, regard it as an abomination. Of those we polled in a nationwide survey, 86 per cent roared abuse at this throw back to the roaring '20s. Only eight per cent said they liked it, and the rest hadn't seen it yet.

Girls were almost as vehement in their denunciation of the sack dress but did not always practice what they preached. When asked if they liked it, 65 per cent of the bobby-soxers answered with a definite no.

But not all had the courage of their convictions. Almost 3 out of every 10 sheepishly admitted that, as slaves to fashion, they already had bought one or more chemise dresses, even though 86 per cent of the boys and girls—especially the boys—say it never will last.

"I hate it," confessed Marilyn Peters of Toledo. "But what can you do? You have to keep up with the times."

Morris Oppal of Cleveland neatly summed up the feelings of his fellow men with a few inflammatory adjectives: "absolutely hideous, horrendous, terrible and vile."

Boys were outspokenly concerned about the camouflage job that the new sack dresses perform on the feminine figure. "I want my girl to look like a girl, not a potential butterfly wrapped in a cocoon," complained a Chicago teenager.

"I don't see what all the

The Chemise Or Sack Dress is looked upon with disdain by the nation's teenagers but coeds insist they'll go right on buying them to keep in step with fashion. Their opinions were recorded in a nation-wide youth survey.

"fuss is about," commented Nancy Jilowsky of Dallas. "I think the chemise is a boon to girls who don't do too much for a tight-fitting sheath dress and who look too heavy in a flared skirt."

strained in their invective than the boys.

"The chemise is the most ghastly thing I've ever seen women wear," said Patricia Kaplan, a freshman at New York's Barnard College, who declined to say whether she

New Methods Used for Theater Ticket Sales

New York — An innovation in selling tickets to Broadway shows has been introduced by Producer David Merrick.

Merrick, who has four shows running currently, is putting tickets for all four on sale at all box offices, instead of just offering duets for the play in a particular theater.

The Merrick productions include "Jamaica," "Romanoff and Juliet," "Look Back in Anger" and "The Entertainer."

New Product Can Combat Radiation

San Francisco — A harmless substance, which can remove radioactive strontium from the body was described today to the nation's chemists.

This material could be the forerunner of a series of compounds to rid humans and animals of other dangerous fallout products. Conceivably these things might be built into the diet as a kind of insurance against radiation damage.

The anti-strontium compound was described in a paper given before the America Chemical society by Arthur Lindenbaum of the Argonne National laboratory at Lemont, Ill. Lindenbaum and two colleagues developed and tested it.

Radioactive strontium, the most feared element in fallout, is considered dangerous because it makes its way into the bones and can give off radiation for scores of years afterward. It is a possible cause of cancer and other diseases.

The compound which can pick this hazardous element out of living bone and other body parts is a tasteless yellow dye called rhodizonate. It latches onto strontium atoms and the two substances together form an insoluble compound which can be eliminated in body waste.

Another chemical called tetrahydroxyquinone has similar abilities. This and rhodizonate may become the starting materials for a whole group of anti-radiation compounds.

Jobless Seem Defeated In Detroit, Alsop Says

Industrial Workers Find Hard Going
In Automobile Manufacturing Areas

BY JOSEPH ALSOP

Detroit, Mich.—Here in this great capital of the limping motor industry, the Eisenhower administration's wait-and-see approach to the depression does not look very sensible.

Alsop

If you want to be convinced, just drop in at U. A. W. Local No. 3, across from the big, dingy old Dodge motor plant in Hamtramck. Then spend a day or so ringing the doorbells of the endless rows of little 1 and 2-family houses inhabited by Dodge and other Chrysler company employees in Hamtramck and East Detroit. What you see in them is the cruel let-down of a vast army of industrial workers by the system they have been taught to trust implicitly.

The morning I went there, Pat Quinn, the president of the Dodge local, was leading a protest march of jobless auto workers to the state capital in Lansing. So all activity temporarily centered in the small office of "Big Pete" Telisky, the local's tall, saw-toothed, hot-tempered vice president. I had hardly introduced myself when Richard, a still-young man who had been working for Dodge for 10 years as a crane and elevator-hoist operator, rather hesitantly entered to ask Big Pete if he knew "anywhere where they were hirin'." Big Pete said bitterly: "Boy, you can't buy a job in this town." Richard nodded disconsolately, as though this were the answer he expected.

Payments to Meet
It was a rough answer for him, all the same. His father, who worked for Dodge for a quarter century, had bought a house on time just before he died five years ago. In those days, both father and son were working, so the payments of $75 a month had been easy to carry. Richard had managed pretty well alone, too, when he was bringing home $80 a week.

The car, the furniture, the washer and dryer and television were all paid for, and he had kept his mother and younger brother fairly comfortable.

But now the little family's whole income was down to $42 a week of unemployment benefits. The house payments took nearly half. Richard had "tried everything, even janitor." So had his 17-year-old brother, "but they ain't even hirin' boys in stories." And worst of all, "we only got another 11 weeks of benefits to go, and after that there'll be nothing but the welfare."

The procession went on all morning, and all the men who came had the same essential problem.

All suddenly had their income cut in half, after 9 or 10 or 11 years of steady work on the same job. Like most of Detroit's other tens of thousands of jobless auto workers, all were now between 9 and 13 weeks away from the end of their unemployment benefits, when there would be no income at all. All had time payments to make, which they could hardly carry even now.

Grim Picture
Ringing doorbells along the gray streets, the story was again the same. Only here, it was grimmer and more poignant, for one actually saw the furniture and the washers and the cars and the homes that were in danger. One saw children "who drink water now," and the harassed wives who "didn't know how they could manage much longer," and the men who seemed unable to overcome their surprise at being at home on a working day.

As time went on, one became obsessed by the thought of "the end of the 26 weeks" (of benefits), which all these people spoke of with a sort of defeated dread. Maybe congress will pass the bill adding another 13 weeks to the 26. Maybe automotive employment will pick up again, when the time for the new models comes in September. But even so, half the things these people have gained will be lost in the interval, because "we just can't meet the payments and feed the kids."

Then, if there are no jobs to be had when the benefit period ends, the whole pattern of life of all these people will simply fall into squalid ruin. And they stand, remember, for many hundreds of thousands of jobless industrial workers in scores of other cities besides Detroit.

Livestock Sent Abroad

New Windsor, Md. —(AP)—A bunch of livestock—57 sheep, 20 calves and 5 baby pigs—were shipped early this month to a rural sector of Italy by Heifer Project Inc., an organization through which American Christian farmers aid their poorer colleagues abroad.

Suppose the husband had property worth $120,000, and his wife had virtually nothing of value. The husband's estate will be allowed a $60,000 federal estate tax exemption and will be taxed on the other $60,000. But if the husband's will provides that his wife is presumed to survive him, half his estate passes to his wife without tax under the federal marital deduction law. Since each of the estates is then entitled to a $60,000 exemption, there will be no federal tax at all.

The Law and You

Parents Should Provide for Both Succumbing at Same Time

A car travelling at high speed swerves out of control and crashes into a bridge abutment. When the police and the ambulances arrive some time later, both the driver and his wife are dead. Which one died first?

The answer to this question doesn't matter much to the police or the ambulance crew or the doctors. But it may make a great deal of difference to the surviving relatives and the tax collector. And had the driver and his wife thought about it sooner, it might have made a difference to them.

Wisconsin has a law that says if two people die at about the same time, and there is no way of proving which died first, the property of each person will be distributed among his heirs as if he had survived. But this law allows you to change this result by your will.

Complications Arise

In our accident case, the wife's property will go to her heirs as though she had died a widow. The husband's will go to his heirs as though he had died a widower. If their heirs are the same person, there is little problem. However, suppose the husband is only a stepfather to his wife's children. His entire property may then go to remote cousins when he would wish it to go to the stepchildren. He can guard against this by a will or by adopting the step-children.

Suppose the husband had property worth $120,000, and his wife had virtually nothing of value. The husband's estate will be allowed a $60,000 federal estate tax exemption and will be taxed on the other $60,000. Preliminary instructions have been given for the last several weeks at the YMCA pool. The second section will be conducted from 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock Monday through Friday of next week. Proposes Legal Lottery To End Tax Increases

Hallister, Calif. — A California tax official proposes setting up a legal lottery to provide $500 million a year for public schools.

George Reilly, chairman of the tax collecting board of equalization, told the Rotary club:

Parimutuel wagering is legal at California race tracks... More Irish sweepstakes tickets are sold in California, although illegal here, than are sold in all of Ireland.

So, he asked, why not take hypocrisy out of gambling, legalize a state-operated lottery and avoid further increasing taxes?

UW Psychiatrists Help Difficult 'Problem' Cases

800 Patients Use Center During Past Four Years

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — In a secluded corner of the University of Wisconsin campus here, psychiatrists and other specialists are trying to help some of the more difficult of the "problem cases", mostly young people, committed to the various institutions operated by the state department of public welfare.

The Wisconsin Diagnostic center was opened here slightly less than four years ago, after a decade of painstaking plans development.

Since that time some 800 patients have passed through the examination and observation procedures of the institution, which is relatively small in size and normally limits its capacity to about 50 patients at any one time.

Provide Service

The institution was designed to provide diagnostic service, rather than residential treatment. The average patient stay is about six weeks. A majority of the patients are under the age of 20.

Referrals are by the juvenile courts of the state, county hospitals, the field workers of the state division of children and youth, and state institutions, including the juvenile corrections institutions for boys and girls.

A substantial number of them were referred for study because of sex offenses.

Frequent Exams

Examinations are frequent and intensive and the institution staff consults with the agencies in the community to which the patient will be returned when he leaves the center.

In a sense the central diagnostic service, which draws from the specialists on the University of Wisconsin staff and other sources, is an experimental program. But a survey by the administrators of the welfare department of the referral agencies has shown that most of them believe the patients routed through the center were improved as a consequence.

MacDowell Chorus Makes Encore Stand At Manawa High

Manawa — The MacDowell male chorus of Appleton will return to Manawa for a joint concert with the high school band Sunday evening. The chorus presented a concert at Manawa a year ago.

The concert is being sponsored by the Music Boosters club.

Legion Ladies To Send Three To Conference

Hilbert — Chris Schaffer and Verona Meier have been named Kupsch - Brockman American Legion auxiliary delegates to the spring conference May 13 at Markesan. Madge Pruess was named a delegate at large and Hulda Vollmer and Jeanette Thiel were named alternates.

Alice Ann Steffes is in charge of reservations for a bus that will take county auxiliary members to the Markesan conference. Reservations must be made before April 30.

The unit has received a sponsor's certificate from the Girl Scouts for its activities backing the Hilbert troop. It also was awarded an over-the-top membership certificate.

A bake sale will be sponsored by the unit at 1 o'clock the afternoon of April 26.

Mr. Davis' Terms

Glenn R. Davis, twice a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, seems to have said in his equivocal candidacy declaration of last week that he deserves another convention blessing and believes he can get it without bestirring himself.
He may be right. There is no doubt that he has a strong claim on the affections and the gratitude of the Republican party organization. He left a reasonably sure seat in the House of Representatives to carry the party's standard under uncertain circumstances in 1956. He made a vigorous bid again in the special election last summer.
But we doubt that a man who really wants this endorsement as a prelude to his party's nomination would go about it in the manner Davis has chosen. He says he won't ask for the endorsement. He won't work or campaign for it. But he will regard it as a high honor and a responsibility, if he gets it in spite of such inactivity.
Davis, it appears to us, is making several errors of considerable weight. He is ignoring the fact that one representative and thoroughly eligible candidate, Roland Steinle, already is on the stump and has not been too proud to attend party caucuses to declare his candidacy and to ask for support.
Davis evidently is banking on the grati-

Winner by a Nose

Somewhere in the United States or in one of the 98 foreign countries in which the product is sold someone recently purchased the five billionth box of Kleenex to come off the production lines of the Kimberly-Clark corporation.
Using disposable tissues has become so much a part of our way of life that it is hard to realize that they have been a product of mass consumption for fewer than 30 years.
An interesting little story is told about a sales promotion program undertaken in 1930 which turned Kleenex into a spectacular seller.
Kleenex's early history had been unsensational.
It started during World War I when a drastic shortage of cotton developed and Kimberly-Clark came up with a substitute called creped wadding. After the war K-C continued to provide wadding to hospitals and soon the Kleenex tissue was developed. Early advertising promoted it for its cold cream-removing abilities, and the inter-folded sheets and "pop-up" features were introduced.
Then, in 1930, came the merchandising program which was to make history.
A market test conducted in Peoria, Ill., was set up using two nearly identical news-

Youthful Automobile Drivers

Thirty-four Wisconsin motorists, including one woman, were convicted of negligent homicide last year. Because it is mandatory under the law, they all lost their drivers' licenses for one year. Twelve were sentenced to terms in the county jail ranging from 60 days to one year, one was sentenced to the Reformatory for a year and one for four years. Fourteen were placed on probation for periods ranging from six months to three years. Six were assessed fines ranging from the payment of court costs to $1,000 plus costs of $94.20.
The youngest driver convicted of this offense was 18 years of age, the oldest 79. Exactly half of the 34 drivers were under 25 years of age. Much has been made of the fact that youthful drivers figure in more accidents than do others. Insurance companies charge a higher rate to insure the young drivers for this reason. It may seem tude of the party for his previous services. Yet we doubt — after a considerable period of close observation of party politics in this state — that gratitude is a measurable factor in the decisions of parties. Nor, for that matter, should it be. The business of a party is to win elections, rather than to respond to the wounded pride or the sacrifices of its past standard-bearers. Davis' record, willy-nilly, is that of a two-time loser. There will be those many practical politicians who will want to make the new campaign with new blood, so to speak, the while avoiding the old animosities and divisions to which a Davis campaign would be heir.

Finally, Davis appears to us to be erring in assuming that all of the delegates to the Republican state convention in Milwaukee next month know all about him and his qualifications, his ideas, and his record, without any need to trouble himself to advise them. But he overlooks the extreme fluidity of organization politics. We don't have the figures at hand — we don't know that they exist — but perhaps up to a third of the convention delegates will sit in an endorsement proceeding for the first time next month.
Davis has served his party well. But if he wants to run again for the very high office of senator, he ought to say so, candidly and effectively, and start now the campaign that will be hard enough even with an early start.

paper advertisements, and carrying a redeemable coupon. One of the ads stressed the regular campaign — the cream-removing feature. The other ad suggested that buyers put the product to use as a disposable handkerchief.
Consumers immediately saw the advantages of the throw-away tissues over standard cotton handkerchiefs. The new ad got double the response of the old one.
Kimberly-Clark switched its advertising to the new appeal entirely, Kleenex sales doubled during the first year and have continued to grow rapidly.
K-C's facilities now include automatic equipment which produces Kleenex tissues at a rate of thousands of boxes an hour.
This expansion, it goes without saying, has been instrumental in the growth and the prosperity of the Fox Cities. The company's main offices in Neenah, and plants in Neenah, Kimberly and Appleton, have provided highly desirable employment for thousands of area residents over the years.
We are proud to be the home of Kleenex — a trade name which, despite the rise of competitors, is still the national synonym for disposable tissues. Good Luck to Kimberly-Clark as it begins producing its second five billion boxes.

logical to the insurance companies to attempt to make those in the under 25 year group pay for the accidents within that group.
However, it must seem grossly unfair to the careful driver within the under-25 group to be assessed a higher insurance premium not because he is a careless driver but merely because he is within a certain age group. The state also penalizes the youthful driver by its rules which bring about a suspension of the younger driver for a lesser offense than is the case for an older driver.
It is a good idea, of course, to have the young driver aware of his responsibilities and of the danger of losing his license, but the insurance companies probably would do better if more of them encouraged careful driving among the youngsters by refunding a part of the premium for good driving records.

People's Forum

Sunday Closing Move Aimed at Our Liberties

Editor, Post-Crescent:
Hats off to the writer whose article appeared in the Forum in answer to the Sunday closing issue!
First, I wish to comment, as well as to congratulate, her on the latter part of her letter which directed her readers to the sacred heritage bequeathed to posterity by the Founding Fathers of this, supposedly, land of the free who saw at first hand the results of intolerance.
Religious freedom can live only in a land where the church and the state remain forever separate in every detail. The church is God's institution, and in His word we find that this principle is clearly taught. In Mark, the 12th chapter, in His answer to those who tried to trap Him in His speech, He called for a penny, which was brought to Him. Pointing to the image, He asked them who it represented. They said, "Caesar's," which represented the state. He gave a direct command to render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's.

Since the Sunday closing subject is purely a religious issue, and not a question of physical rest, I wish to call attention to the danger involved in securing any sort of legislation that would interfere with the conscience of minorities. Little does the liberty-loving public realize how dark and ominous is the cloud that hangs over our religious freedom in this so-called land of the free. Drafters of and seekers for such legislation will, if continuing in that spirit of intolerance, lose that for which Christians are seeking.

Diaries, Correspondence Give Best Report of Thoughts of Great Men

BY GEORGE SOKOLSKY
(Copyright, 1958)

There was a time when great men knew that they were great and they wrote books about themselves. Perhaps the most famous of these is Julius Caesar's account of himself and his wars which every schoolboy had to learn as part of his education before the saxophone and skin-diving became cultural subjects.

More recently, great men hire press agents and ghost writers to do such jobs, as for instance, Wendell Willkie hired Joe Barnes to do his "One World" book and, for that matter, the afore-said Barnes aided Gen. Eisenhower to do his "Crusade in Europe." However, Winston Churchill and Herbert Hoover continue to do their own, unassisted by experts in spelling and punctuation.

Information From Diaries
Hoover's book on Woodrow Wilson, shortly to appear, contains considerable new data, much of it from correspondence heretofore unavailable and from private diaries, hidden away in the libraries of universities and in the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace, situated at Stanford University in California.

Upon inquiry I find that the Hoover Institution contains a large accumulation of diaries, in many languages, some of which can be of great value to the future historian. A sample of what they have at the Hoover Institution follows:

- "Joseph Goebbels — Handwritten Diary For 1925-26; Typewritten for 1943.
- Heinrich Himmler — For 1914-24.
- Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell — From Pearl Harbor Through World War II.
- Herbert Hoover — Including His Diary Notes of Negotiations with Germans for Relief During World War I.
- V. I. Gurko — Assistant Russian minister of the interior and member of the Russian State Council under Czar Nicholas II.
- Count V. N. Kokotsov — Chairman of the Russian council of ministers, 1911-1914.
- Anton Z. Ouchinnikov — A member of Admiral Kolchak's anti-Bolshevik forces in Siberia.
- Franz Halder — Chief of the German general staff, 1938-42.
- Rudolph Holsti — Finnish minister of foreign affairs.
- Frans L. M. Dony — Member of Dutch underground, 1943-44.
- Frieda Schmidt — Anti-Nazi German in Munich, for most of the Nazi years.
- Simeon A. Villa — On the staff of Aguinaldo in the Philippines."

Diaries are difficult to get because families like to hold on to them for sentimental or monetary reasons. Often the great man of a former era becomes a forgotten man of succeeding eras and his well-kept diary may be of no value because the fellow was dishonest to himself. He wrote for publication. The greatest value of a diary over an autobiography is that the diary can be a mirror of a man's soul whereas the autobiography is what he wants people to believe about him.
Harry Appraised Harry
Harry Truman's autobiography, for instance, while it contains much interesting data, is historically not too valuable because Harry praises Harry as only his best friends think of him. Maybe Harry has kept a diary and some day, we shall know of his trials and tribulations, his doubts, his fears, his uncertainties.
Thus far, there has been no correct account of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Biographical material about Roosevelt is plentiful, but it is written by friend or foe and much is obviously untrue for no such perfection ever existed on this earth and no such devil could long survive his own shadow. If Roosevelt kept a diary it has been kept quiet, and is unavailable for our vulgar eyes. It would be historically of value to know what Roosevelt thought of his spouse Eleanor. Perhaps all that will become available and we shall have a true picture of the man.

Roosevelt was a cynic to a degree and one wonders what he thought of the characters, Republican as well as Democrat, who after 1936, invaded his administration to make careers for themselves. Some of them were peculiarities in American life and some are still around, looking here and there for public approval and a job with which also goes applause. He introduced so many of them to the American people that he must have had a special penchant for the breed. But such private views would only appear in a diary or in letters written to a particularly appreciative lady.
The Hoover Institution probably needs money, as all such organizations do, but it would be valuable if they sorted out their collections of diaries and letters and had them published for all to read who are curious about what really makes the human race act as it does.

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of April 19, 1879.
The last hop of the Waverly Club will be given at the Waverly House on Tuesday evening next.
From the amount of preparations going on, we have no doubt the party will be largely attended by the elite of this city and that of Neenah and Menasha as well.
The music will be faultless, the company select and all will be as "merry as a marriage bell."

Under the Capital Dome
Coyness of Obvious
Candidates Amusing

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Madison — Some of the ground rules and protocol of politics must sometimes seem absurd to those who are not initiated into the mysteries of the grand old game.
The coyness of the man who is running for office with all his might, for example, but who appears reluctant to say so, to "announce," as the common political phrase has it.

The other day a prominent Wisconsin politician who is running for reelection with such anxiety that it seems inconceivable that any Wisconsin voter doesn't know it, parried the questions of a couple of rather naive reporters in a southern Wisconsin city. Thereupon the wire news service sent out a straight-faced account suggesting that the politician might not run for the office he now holds, but may seek another. It was a remarkable incident, taken all in all, for the politician's tongue protruded so prominently in his cheek that it could scarcely be missed by anyone with normal vision.

HOW IT GOES

The professional political reporter, of course, has learned to play these little games. A state senator will turn up at the capital in the spring of a campaign year and the correspondent will ask him the natural question, about his plans for running again.

The reporter knows he is running, of course, it only because of the rule that 99 per cent of them never quit. The politician knows that the reporter knows. It is a neat little bit of psychological by-play, for what the politician doesn't want is for the word to go out that he is thinking about retiring. That would spoil everything.

Yet there is a kind of tacit rule in the business that he shouldn't say so too early. Any publicity speculation is a bonus to the publicity hungry politicians. All speculation ends when the announcement is made in unqualified terms.

But the electoral innocent may ask: Why this coyness and reluctance to acknowledge what everyone knows, or suspects, anyway?
The reasons are several, and together they have enough weight to persuade all of the practitioners.
For many persons, there is an assumption that the point of "announcement" means the effective date of the corrupt practices act, with its expenditure reporting requirements. A politician, in practice at least, may chase around the country in search of votes to his heart's content and his energy's limit. He need not report what it is costing him.

For others, interested in the higher office, there is the fact that reporters might be encouraged to speculate in print, with free publicity to the politician, if the formal announcement is withheld for a while. Among contemporary Wisconsin Democrats, for example, that is a real consideration.

FINALLY

For the incumbent holder of elective office there is another reason for postponing the confession — and perhaps the best reason of all that may figure in the situation.
As a public officer, the man gets invitations to speak and to get acquainted that he frequently cannot get when he is listed as a "candidate." There are many media, and many organizations, that will listen willingly enough to a public official, but who won't be so anxious to hear him after a public announcement that he is running as a candidate — if only because they must then also invite his opponent.

A Madison television station incident the other day illustrates.
Gov. Thomson was given free time, as the chief executive of the state. Local Democrats complained, demanded that their candidate for governor, Gaylord Nelson, be given equal time. The station demurred, but offered time to Sen. Proxmire, as a public official. It need not be added that Proxmire didn't hesitate to accept it.

Fletcher Knebel
Potomac Fever

Ike throws out the first baseball of the season. This presidential chore resembles the state-of-the-union message. After each, everybody asks: "Who's on first?"
Harry Truman urges a $5 billion tax cut for low and middle incomes. Harry figures the rich don't need help. They either wind up as Republicans — or Democratic candidates for president.
Farm Boss Benson's ode to the death of Sputnik II: Oh, mourn no more for Sputnik now, for o'er the moon we'll jump a cow. Instead of dogs without know-how, we'll boost a pig — complete with snout.
Economists' recession jargon: "To bottom out" — a runner tagged out sliding into third.
U. S. senate: The last free forum of debate where senators can practice up for the week-end TV panel shows.
Labor Secy. Mitchell says we have a basically sound economy. In fact, the more soundings the Eisenhower team takes, the more basic it gets.

Tips on Bonsai, Japanese Art Of Growing Dwarfed Trees

BY KATHERINE B. WALKER

For centuries the Japanese have been practicing the art of Bonsai, and some of their dwarfed trees have outlived many generations of owners.

When the trees have reached the ultimate in under-potting and near-starvation, they may require watering two or three times a day, which is more trouble than most of us care to go to. But if you want to dwarf trees in authentic fashion, you can obtain several fine books on the subject. If you'd rather do it the easy, modern way, here are a few tips:

First, don't try to start your trees from seed. Some varieties may take up to three years to germinate, and raising the seedlings, if and when they finally appear, is a tricky business. Since shape is everything, try to find a native seedling that has been bent or storm-damaged in infancy, like the maple shown here, or buy imperfect small evergreens from a nursery. One nursery used to feature their damaged stock as Bonsai material.

Then prune the roots to about one-half, pot the tree in rather poor soil in as small a pot as possible, and shape the top if necessary. It is best if you do not give plant food to dwarfed trees, but if you feel they need something, be very sparing in its use.

Deciduous Types

If you are growing deciduous trees, they should be allowed to spend their dormant period in the outdoor garden. When late fall comes, I transfer mine to plain clay pots and plunge them in the soil next to the house, where they are easier to remove in early spring. Brought indoors again, they are knocked out of the clay pots, the roots are pruned lightly, and the trees are set once more in decorative containers for their indoor living. As new growth appears, the tops may be shaped and any dead wood removed; weights may be tied to the branches, or branches may be fastened with plant-ties, to induce interestingly-misshapen growth.

Questions and Answers

How should I pot Peruvian-daffodils?

Peruvian - daffodils (Ismene calathina) should be potted in rich soil as deep as possible. I usually use a larger pot than necessary in order to get sufficient depth for the bulbs. Do not remove any of the long, fat, white roots; these are essential for good bloom. Water well when first potted, then water lightly until growth begins.

What kind of soil is best for oxalis?

They prefer a very sandy soil, either rich or poor.

Why does orchid foliage sometimes turn a very light color?

This is most often due to too much light.

What is the name of a large plant that has flowers sort of like a hollyhock blossom?

If the leaves are smooth textured and shiny, it may be Hibiscus. If they are the shape of maple - leaves and slightly furry to the touch, it may be Abutilon (Flowering-maple.)

Kitchen Is 'Luxury' Room With Convenience, Beauty

Modern Devices, Grace in Decor, Transform It to Woman's Haven

Early American decor, perfect in every detail, and modern functional devices make Mrs. Elmer Otte, 22 Winona court, very proud of her kitchen which makes household work a pleasure. Drudgery, in the past few years, has been a word not often applied to modern step-saving kitchens where the woman of the house spends much of her time. Strategically located in the center-back section of their home, the Ottes have a kitchen and family room combination, invaluable for everyday cooking and informal entertaining.

Very often the work center of the home, where washing, ironing, cooking, and other chores are met with vigor, it is important that the kitchen lay out is both efficient and attractive.

ments to the ironing board can be stored with ease in this carefully shelved space.

While standing at the porcelain sink or corresponding dish washer, Mrs. Otte has a lovely view of her yard. The windows too, let in plenty of light to brighten the kitchen.

Trash can be disposed of painlessly by only bending slightly and depositing it in either of two chutes located in a lower cabinet near the sink. Cupboards set above the counter are just the right height and store a large supply of staples. With the exception of one section of the counter which is a spacious "chopping block" adjacent to the sink, the kitchen's over-all appearance is kept spic and span with a counter topping resistant to all hazards of cooking such as burning and cutting.

Fan Banishes Odor
Directly above the stove a fan whisks away unsavory odors and keeps the kitchen from being the dark, smoky, laboratory-like room it once was. Almost the heart of her home, Mrs. Otte has filled her kitchen with color and sociability. Copper accessories embellish every corner, yet leave it uncluttered and definitely workable.

Copper containers for flour, sugar and other food items look handsome on the smooth counters, and small copper pans and cooking utensils hang decoratively from the wall. An old-fashioned lamp, electric of course, yet reminiscent of the kerosene lights, a door to the near-by family room, for eating and entertaining where the Ottes and their friends gather to chat and enjoy a cup of coffee.

A small wall lamp, following closely in style, lends light to this cozy room and colorful plates placed on the wall complete the enviable motif, transforming the kitchen and dinette into comfortable, functional rooms. Setting the smaller room off from the main room, the kitchen, is a counter to which the stove is attached.

Drawers to house silverware and other table setting accessories open from both the kitchen and the opposite side, saving countless steps and energy. Certainly beauty and convenience are the prime factors which name this kitchen so perfectly. Classic in style and superb in performance, completed in exciting simple decor, add both flare to the home and enjoyment for the family.

Contemporary American conveniences and early American styling prove to be an unbeatable combination in the kitchen and dinette in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Otte, 22 Winona court. Mrs. Otte is shown above relaxing peacefully in the lovely knotty pine room which doubles as breakfast "nook" and family room, often used for informal entertaining. Just steps away is Mrs. Otte's functional kitchen, a blend of simplicity in decor and practicality. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Bottled Lemon Juicy Handy Item For Kitchen Use

That handy bottle of lemon juice in the kitchen can do more than flavor foods. It can cut corners in food preparation and serving.

Here are some tricks with lemon you may have forgotten but which were tried and true even back in Grandma's day:

When you slice bananas, avocados, or raw apples in preparation for a recipe, and want to do this work in advance, a sprinkling of bottled lemon juice over the fruits will prevent discoloration until you are ready to use them.

If you decide on the spur of the moment to bake a certain cake, and the recipe calls for sour milk but there's none in the refrigerator, you can convert a cup of sweet milk into sour in seconds by adding one tablespoon of lemon juice.

When salad dressing or mayonnaise needs thinning and you want to avoid using cream out of deference to the family's calorie count, add lemon juice instead.

Here's a trick the finest restaurants use when they serve lobster: provide each guest with a fingerbowl of lukewarm water, to which lemon juice has been added. This works like magic in removing seafood aroma and melted butter from the fingers.

Early New Potatoes Harbingers of Spring

We usually take potatoes for granted. In many households they appear at least once a day and sometimes oftener. And yet, every spring they seem to have a brand-new flavor when the early new potatoes come to market.

Often even the color of the skin is different. Some of those from California have put on a new dress — dusty pink or rose. Often we will serve them cooked in their jackets, and let each person at the table peel his own, or the potatoes may be scraped before cooking.

We may peel them in the kitchen after cooking and dress them with melted butter or with parsley or chive butter. Perhaps we will add lemon juice or we will brown the butter. We also like them served whole with a rich cream sauce, into which we may fold chives, parsley or grated cheese. Sometimes we combine the cooked potato balls with cooked fresh green peas and dress them merely with hot cream. They are also good lightly browned in bacon fat and sprinkled with the crisp bacon.

We like new potatoes for salad. For this they should be thinly sliced and allowed to marinate in well seasoned French dressing. Served on a bed of greens with a combination of mayonnaise, sour cream and finely cut scallions, they furnish a delicious spring salad. You may like to sprinkle the potatoes with bits of crisp bacon or thinly sliced frankfurters.

Potatoes With Bacon
2 pounds new potatoes
3 strips bacon
1 teaspoon pepper
Wash and scrape potatoes. Place in saucepan with one inch of boiling salted water. Cover and cook potatoes 15 to 20 minutes, depending upon size of potatoes. Drain, if necessary. Cook bacon until crisp. Remove from fat and drain on paper towel. Add drained potatoes to hot fat, and brown on all sides. Place on serving dish. Crumble crisp bacon over top and sprinkle with pepper.

Molded Potato Salad
Wash and scrape new potatoes. Cook and cut into fine dice. Mix with French dressing, finely minced onion, celery and pimiento. Press into ring mold and chill in refrigerator. Turn out and serve with mayonnaise or well seasoned salad (sour) cream. Grated sharp cheddar cheese may be added to the mixture before molding, if desired. Garnish with strips of pimiento and salad greens.

Crunchy, Baked Breakfast Bread Made From Rice

A wonderful, quick breakfast bread is made easily with cooked rice.

Cook one cup cooked rice and one-half cup milk together over a low heat until the milk is absorbed. Stir in one tablespoon sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, two tablespoons melted butter. Cool slightly and stir in one beaten egg.

Sift together one-half cup all-purpose flour and two teaspoons double-acting baking powder. Stir into the rice mixture. Spread in a well-greased square pan. The layer should be about one-third inch thick. Bake in a 425 degree oven about 15 minutes.

Cut in squares and serve piping hot with honey for a real eating treat.

Spicy Pork With Herbs Party Dish

Here's a pork recipe that resembles a party stew — lean, tender pork shoulder meat is cut into cubes and slowly cooked in a tomato and green pepper-flecked sauce.

Spicy Pork With Herbs
3 pounds pork shoulder meat, cubed
1 tablespoon lard or drippings
2 medium onions, cut into chunks
2 green peppers, seeded and cut into chunks
1 clove garlic, minced
1 can (16-17 ounces) tomatoes
2 teaspoons each, vinegar and salt
1 teaspoon oregano
1 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup water

Brown pork cubes on all sides in hot fat. Remove meat from pan and brown onions, green peppers, and garlic. Drain off excess fat, if necessary; return meat and add tomatoes, vinegar, salt, oregano and pepper.

Cover and cook over low heat for one hour, or until pork is tender. Thicken drippings with a paste made by blending flour and water.

New Potatoes are a Spring Special. Peeled or not, served with sauces or other vegetables or even made into a salad, they appear at least once a day on most tables.

Seasoning Secrets

'How to Use Spices' Title of Valuable New Cook Booklet

"How to Use Spices" is the title of a new cook booklet released this week by the American Spice Trade association. Designed to take the mystery out of spices for the beginning spice-cook and to add new tricks to the experienced cook's repertoire, the book contains 150 recipes developed by the association's test kitchen.

These recipes cover spiced dishes for every course of a meal from such piquant "Appetizers" as Dill Codfish Balls and provocatively spiced Cheese Straws to grand finale desserts such as Spiced Devil's Food Cake and Frozen Plum Pudding, seasoned with cardamom.

Among the savory hot soup recipes in the section "Soups With Personality" are Philadelphia Red Snapper Soup, redolent of red pepper, black pepper and thyme, and Chili Black Bean Soup. Chilled soups include Gazpacho, cold spiced salad soup, and Frosty Tomato - Buttermilk Soup. Spiced main dishes range from delicately herbed Roast Lamb Rosemary to warmly spiced Arroz con Pollo (chicken with rice). Seafood ideas run the gamut from simple Salmon and Egg Scramble, flavored with oregano, to elegant Paprika Stuffed Lobster.

For Speed Occasion
On interesting section is called "Special Occasion Cookery." Herb are found well seasoned ideas for the bride's first dinner, chuck wagon cookery, curry meals, jiffy meals, and many other special occasion meals.

The book's introduction offers six easy steps to becoming a good spice cook. These include tips on gaining familiarity with herbs and spices, buying them wisely, learning to use them with delicacy and restraint, and ways of assuring an always fresh stock of spices. A compatibility chart lists all of the major spices, tells whether each is a true spice, an herb, a seed or a blend and describes the types of food with which each is compatible. A map of the world on the inside and covers shows the latest sources of spices.

"How to Use Spices" was produced by the spice association's test kitchen under the supervision of Mrs. Avanelle S. Day. It sells for 25 cents and may be ordered from the American Spice Trade Information bureau, 350 Fifth avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

Avoid Same Flavors In Planning Menu

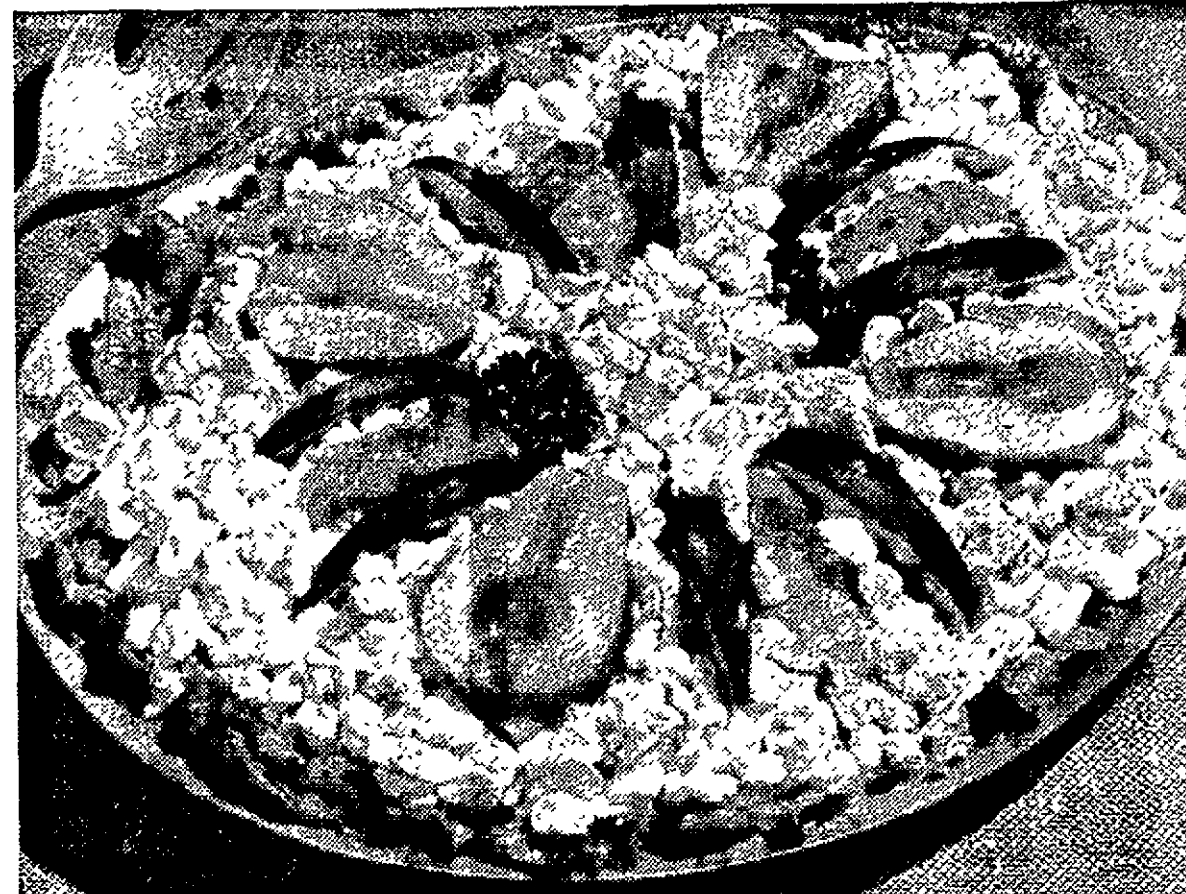

Hint to menu-makers: Do not repeat flavors when you plan a meal. If your main course is to be spaghetti with meat balls and tomato sauce, do not include tomatoes in an appetizer or salad. If your dessert is to feature fruit, do not start off with a fruit cup.

Meat Cookery Guide

In general, tender meat cuts are best cooked by dry heat methods — roasting, broiling, and panbroiling. Less tender meat cuts are made tender by a moist heat method of meat cookery — braising or cooking meat in liquid.

Milk Topped Cereal Good for Breakfast Nutrition and Taste

Here are a few of the many reasons why cereal and milk breakfasts are so very important.

Only 59 per cent of the adult population drink milk, 41 per cent seldom or never drink milk. About three-fourths of the people eat cereal at one time or another.

Cereal and milk are among the most convenient foods commonly eaten at breakfast.

Cereal and milk are easily digested and are full of quick energy, so necessary for maximum efficiency, both mental and physical, during the morning hours.

Cereal and milk are a "nutritional bargain." Penny for penny, few foods, for such small cost, make such a contribution to the satisfaction of daily nutritional requirements. The cereal and milk serving provides top-quality protein, quickly available food energy, essential B-complex vitamins and the important minerals.

Cereals also are very low in fat and are devoid of cholesterol.

Cake for Youngsters

When baking a large cake for the family, it is easy to also bake a very tiny one for the little girl in your family. She will enjoy so much having a party with the small girl next door, using her toy dishes, orange juice and little cake.

Beech-Nut STRAINED PEAS

Beech-Nut peas are pickin' time fresh!

Pickin' time's the time when peas are at their very best—rich in vitamins and natural flavor.

Beech-Nut takes extra care to keep all the goodness of pickin' time in every jar of fruit or vegetables.

No wonder babies prefer Beech-Nut Baby Foods. They can taste the freshness, and so can you.

Alcorn to Attend GOP Convention

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Meade Alcorn, chairman of the Republican national committee, will pay his first official visit to Wisconsin when he attends the Republican state convention in Milwaukee on May 23 and 24, Republican headquarters here reports.

Alcorn will be a speaker at the Republican county chairman's dinner preceding the convention and probably will attend the convention sessions on the two days following. He was named chairman of the Republican national organization early in 1957.

Quick Hot Breads are a Feather in any Mom's hat, but when they are served for breakfast—sit back and wait for the inevitable compliments.

Hot Breakfast Muffins Made In Minutes

For a quick breakfast treat that will bring early morning hurrahs, try these Orange Muffin Delights. They are eye-openers.

Made from orange muffin mix with an upside-down topping of orange marmalade, they only take a minute to prepare.

Place 1 tablespoon marmalade in bottom of 12 large greased muffin cups. Fill cups one-half full of batter. Bake 15 to 20 min. at 400 degrees. Cool slightly. Serve muffins upside down.

Early Strawberries Make Fine Garnish

You will be tempted by those fine California strawberries that have been coming into market in pint baskets.

If they still seem too expensive to serve alone for dessert, one basket can be combined with another fruit, or can be used as a garnish for ice cream or some other dessert.

Easy Preparation For Russian Dressing

Like Russian dressing on hearts of lettuce and other salad? You can whip it up by mixing a half cup of mayonnaise with a half cup of tomato catsup and adding pimiento-stuffed green olives, chives, parsley, celery (all minced).

Cubes for Stews

Beef, veal or lamb are often used in stews. When using veal for a stew, the meat may be cut from any one of the following places: neck, breast, shoulder or flank. Being less tender, the meat is naturally cooked by a moist heat method of meat cookery.

Former Lawrence Men Helped Give Life to Science Academy

4 Founders of State Organization Held Prominent Positions at College

By Marguerite Schumann

To a lot of people who do the world's work, science and its abstractions were invented on that day last October when a little red moon began to ominously circle the earth.

The long years that the pursuit of pure science has been entrenched in the state of Wisconsin is a source of pride, then, to those who have been in the know a little longer.

It was in February, 1870, that the Wisconsin Academy of Science was founded at the request of the governor, who called together more than 100 prominent citizens of the state with the trumpet call: "What is the status of Wisconsin as a civilized state?"

Apparently the men out of laboratories of learning were anxious that the answer to the governor's challenge be: "Considerable." For in short order they had organized the academy and hustled to publish a list of scholarly work done in Wisconsin prior to that date. Among their prize exhibits were the writings of a philosopher in Green Bay which had been published in Germany.

Four From Lawrence
Four of the founders were from Lawrence college, and two of them particularly had a hand in shaping the infant academy. Lending both name and brain to the academy were former President Russell Zeldes Mason, who was still residing in Appleton; incumbent President George McKendree Steele; and Professors J. C. Foye and W. F. Yocum.

President Mason was one of the most colorful and controversial of Lawrence's early presidents. At the time he helped found the Wisconsin academy, he had left off college presiding five years earlier, weary with fund-raising and spiritually exhausted over doctrinal disputes with the Methodist church.

He had always avoided the serene and well-ordered life. He was born in the east and graduated from Wesleyan just in time to be one of the Forty-Niners. He sailed for California by way of Cape Horn, panned for gold, and returned disappointed by way of the Isthmus of Panama. As all travellers were obliged to do at that time, he had to walk across the Isthmus to catch a second boat on the other side.

Somewhere in his wanderings he must have alighted long enough for letters to reach him, for he took a job as a professor at McKendree college in Illinois, and in 1854 came to Lawrence.

Two Problems
Mason inherited two of the largest problems a Lawrence college president has ever surmounted: the college was $20,000 in the red due to the constant appearance of perpetual scholarships sold during its infant years; and before the new president had even found his way through the ledgers the Civil war was upon him and students left school in droves.

Mason was able to turn the tide for Lawrence financially. By the time he left in 1865, he had wiped out the college's debt and accumulated $20,000 for endowment. But the Civil war was not the only conflict that raged around President Mason. Somehow he came to blows with the Methodists on points of doctrine, and he surrendered his parsonage as a minister when he gave over the presidential reins.

Whatever the heresy, it apparently did not interfere with Mason's personal relationship with his God. He often said he "had to pray all the time, in office hours, while walking, and while performing his domestic duties." Among his domestic duties were caring for his chickens, pigs and cows in a pair of immense wooden shoes which some student had given him as a Christmas-time joke. Mason continued to serve on the college's board of trustees after he resigned from the presidency, was elected mayor of Appleton and had a street named for him. He stayed in the city until 1880, running a company that tried to get gas out of the swamp.

Close to Geology

Although Mason had taught just about everything in science—he is listed at various times for mathematics, astronomy, physics and chemistry—the study of geology seemed to be very close to his heart, and his early papers, before the Wisconsin academy (where his official title was that of counselor in the department of natural sciences) were on clay deposits and fossils found in the Appleton region.

Mason's gas company was wiped out in the panic of 1878, and soon after he moved his family to Silver Cliff, Colo., where he established an assay-er's office. "I confess to total defeat in the business world. It took property worth more than $40,000 in my case to pay on demand an aggregate indebtedness of four thousand. This may be legal but it is not right. By such a system we make socialism if not crime," he wrote sadly.

Named for Bishops

George McKendree Steele held Lawrence's frayed reins in his hands at the time the Wisconsin academy was founded, and he was named a counselor in the department of social and political sciences. Dr. Steele was one of the truly brilliant teaching-presidents in the college's first century. His scholarship was known to be of a high order, and it is assumed that he skipped some of the academy's early papers like "The German Sunday," which was a pseudo-sociologic but mainly Puritan report of the jolly, noisy Sabbaths of bands, beer gardens and Germanic crowds in parks which so ranked in the hearts of English-descended settlers.

Steele was himself the son of a Methodist minister, and was named for two early bishops of that church. The Steeles led an even more itinerant life than most clergy—24 pastorates in six states—so George never quite knew where home was. This confusion was compounded by the fact that at age nine he was put out to work as a farm hand until 21, at which time a young man traditionally gained his freedom from parental authority.

Since he was working for his keep during the milder months, Steele only put in 12 weeks at a time during the winters at a district school. Nonetheless, at age 23 he set off for Wesleyan university, and graduated at the top of his class. He kept his intellectual interests alive during 12 years of parish work by meeting with two others to read Greek and Hebrew once a week.

Throughout his life, his pen was never idle. He wrote something for publication every few weeks for 40 years, and placed them in such magazines as the Atlantic Monthly, the North American Review and numerous church papers. He also authored five books.

Steele was a giant of a man with a leonine head of silver hair. Whenever he appeared at a Lawrence chapel immediately after a trip to the barber, the students cheered him roundly. It was his daily custom in chapel to read a list of student offenders, with the request: "Kindly report to Number One immediately after chapel." Number One was Steele's office on the first floor of Main hall, and great was the quaking among those in the waiting room.

High Silk Hat

At commencement, Steele dignified the occasion by wearing a high silk hat and conferring the degrees in Latin, but other than that there were precious few academic trappings for the poverty-stricken college. Steele himself preached the baccalaureate sermon, and gave his audience a full two hours' worth. At the end of the first hour, he would announce "Perhaps it will rest the audience to rise." Then he would go on in a voice which was generally deep, musical and thrilling, but would inexplicably crack into a falsetto.

Steele had a rare sort of dynamism that deeply impressed students. One of them, who became dean of women at Carleton college and a major figure in the history of that school, wrote of the man who handed her a diploma: "He transformed dullards into scholars, weaklings into robust students, frivolous girls into earnest women, selfish boys into ministers and missionaries, even incipient criminals into noble citizens."

Advanced Ideas
Steele never referred to women as "the weaker vessel." His wife, the former Susan Jan Swift, was a distinguished feminist who had been converted to brahm, Mass., and Lawrence gave him an L.L.D. The same son, years later, endowed a chair at Lawrence in ancient history, so Steele's name is still in the college's working vocabulary.

When President Steele turned over his office to his successor, he said, "I love Lawrence; there is not an old chair or an armless settee in all this building that does not mean something to me. The best years of my life are here."

In Appleton, and indeed everywhere he went, Lawrence's third president "bound men to him by bands of Steele," wrote someone who knew him.
